Course Management Page and one.SJSU Messaging
Course materials such as syllabus, handouts, notes, and assignment instructions can be found on the Canvas learning management system course website. You are responsible for checking the messaging system through one.SJSU to learn of any updates.

Online Format
Our course will be meeting synchronously during our assigned course meeting time unless otherwise noted by myself. You can access our Zoom sessions via the course Canvas page. On certain days, class will break out early so that you can complete an online assignment. These days are marked on the course schedule at the end of this document. Please contact me immediately if you have any concerns about connecting to Zoom.

ENGL 1B Course Description
General Course Description:
ENGL 1B is a writing course that exposes you to significant works of the human intellect and imagination. Through the study of literary, rhetorical, and professional texts, you will examine the analytical and creative process in the production and perception of such works, and the significance of the historical and cultural contexts in which the works are created and interpreted. You will practice prewriting, drafting, revising, and editing, and you will practice reading closely in a variety of forms, styles, structures, and modes.

Specific Section Description:
Writing and Reading the City – In this course, we will use literature, critical essays, and our own analytical projects to explore and better understand the city. What does an author’s representation of their urban surroundings say about their identity or moment in history? How has the city impacted the way we think and behave? How have different disciplines sought to comprehend or improve urban life? We will keep these questions in mind as we consider ways to re-imagine San Jose.

ENGL 1B Learning Outcomes (GELO)

Upon successful completion of the course, you will be able to
1. recognize how significant works illuminate enduring human concerns;
2. respond to such works by writing both research-based critical analyses and personal responses;
3. write clearly and effectively.

ENGL 1B Course Learning Objective (CLO)

1. Develop and carry out research projects, and locate, evaluate, organize, and incorporate information effectively. (from ENGL dept. C2 course learning goals)
2. Use a critical lens to read a variety of literary, rhetorical, and professional works of the human intellect and imagination.
3. Write clearly, effectively, and creatively, and adjust writing style appropriately to the content, the context, and the nature of the subject. (from ENGL dept C2 course learning goals)
4. Explain how a text both frames and is framed by a variety of critical lenses: cultural, historical, socio-economic, political, and personal.
5. Demonstrate how humanistic methods of reasoning and arguing can prepare students to meet the global challenges facing scientists and engineers.

ENGL 1B Course Content

Diversity: SJSU studies include an emphasis on diversity. You will engage in integrated reading and writing assignments to construct your own arguments on complex issues (such as diversity and ethnicity, class and social equality) that generate meaningful public debate. Readings for the course will include writers of different genders and from different socio-economic classes.

Writing: You will write a series of essays informed by research and articulating fully developed arguments about complex issues. Writing assignments will give you repeated practice in prewriting, drafting, revising, and editing. This class requires a minimum of 6000 words, at least 4000 of which must be in revised final draft form. Assignments include in-class writing as well as revised out-of-class essays.

Reading: In addition to being writing intensive, ENGL 1B is also a reading course. You will read a variety of literary, rhetorical, and professional works of the human intellect and imagination. Secondary materials will be read to help situate the historical and cultural contexts in which the primary texts were created. All the readings serve as useful models of writing for academic, general, and specific audiences.

Critical Thinking: In addition to focusing on how to write arguments, the course also teaches you how to analyze and evaluate texts critically. More specifically, you will practice evaluating arguments for purpose, audience, rhetorical strategies, conclusions; evaluating ideas by contextualizing your assumptions and values (historical, cultural, socio-economic, political); and evaluating your own understanding of ideas by identifying your own interpretative lens.

Oral: You will be presenting your arguments orally to class both as an individual and as part of a group.

ENGL 1B Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, you are expected to spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on.

Assignment Word Count and Learning Goals

All assignments due to Canvas unless otherwise instructed.

Assignment requires rough draft and final draft

Bolded – letter-grade assignments

Writing Portfolio: At the end of the semester you will compile a portfolio of your writing that documents how you met the learning goals of the course.

Required Texts

Available for Purchase through Canvas page

There, There, Tommy Orange (ISBN: 978-0525520375)
A Small Place, Jamaica Kincaid (ISBN: 978-0374527075)

Other required readings can be found either linked in the syllabus or as PDFs in Canvas.

Grading Policy

This is not a lecture course, so you need to be prepared to talk. That means having readings completed and available in class (either hardcopy or on computer/tablet). If you do not attend class, you will not be participating, which will reflect on your final grade.

Extension Policy

I will grant extensions (no questions asked) for the following assignments:

Essay # 1: Rhetorical Analysis
Essay # 2: Literary Analysis
Individual Tour Stop Analysis
Essay # 3: Argumentative Paper

All other assignments must be submitted by the times listed on this syllabus and Canvas.
Peer Review Workshops: The revision process is central to this class, so you will be responsible for writing a rough draft for each essay. While only the final draft will be graded, not completing a rough draft and participating in peer review workshops will result in a deduction of one letter grade to the paper’s final grade.

Late papers for Major Essays will be docked half a letter grade each day they are late. Late papers for credit/half credit/no credit assignments (all responses, reflections, etc.) will not be accepted.

Students must receive a C- or higher to pass the course.

Requirements for particular assignments will vary, but in all cases essay grades will reflect the paper’s effectiveness, which is broken down into three major areas: content (this includes maturity and sophistication of thought), organization, and expression.

An “A” range essay is organized and well-developed, demonstrating a clear understanding and fulfillment of the assignment, written in a unique and compelling voice. It will show the student’s ability to use language effectively with a solid command of grammar, mechanics, and usage.

A “B” range essay demonstrates competence in the same categories as an “A” essay, but it may show slight weakness in one of these areas. It will respond to the topic suitably and may contain some grammatical, mechanical or usage errors.

A “C” range essay will complete the requirements of the assignment, but it will show weaknesses in fundamentals, such as development. It may show weakness in mastery of grammar, mechanics, usage, or voice.

A “D” range essay will neglect to meet all the requirements of the assignment or may be superficial in its treatment of the topic. It may lack development or fail to stay on topic. It may contain grammatical, mechanical, and/or usage errors that interfere with reader comprehension.

An “F” essay does not fulfill the requirements of the assignment.

A (93-100); A- (90-92); B+ (87-89); B (83-86); B- (80-82); C+ (77-79); C (73-76); C- (70-72); D+ (67-69); D (63-66); D- (60-62); F (<60)

This course must be passed with a C- or better as a CSU graduation requirement.

Classroom Protocol

You need to participate, be on time, and be courteous to your peers and to your teacher. When we are discussing the readings, you should either have a physical copy or a copy pulled up on a laptop or tablet. Your cell phone should remain in your pocket or bag unless you offer me a convincing argument as to why you need to have it out.
University Policies

Note on Course Readings and Projects:

Sometimes projects and class discussions include material with a sensitive nature. In this course, students encounter materials that differ from and perhaps challenge their understanding of reality. Students are encouraged to discuss issues that may arise from materials with their instructor.
