Course Description and Requisites

Exploration of Anglo-Saxon, Medieval, Renaissance, and Early Colonial Writings in Britain, Europe, and America. Class engages literary text, literary history, and historical events that shape the literature and social constructs of the period.

Prerequisite(s): ENGL 1A.

Letter Graded

Classroom Protocols

Bring your books to the synchronous meetings. Read the materials thoroughly before class. Read actively: mark passages that interest you and formulate questions about them. Come prepared to discuss what interests you about these texts.

Program Information

The following statement has been adopted by the Department of English for inclusion in all syllabi: In English Department Courses, instructors will comment on and grade the quality of student writing as well as the quality of ideas being conveyed. All student writing should be distinguished by correct grammar and punctuation, appropriate diction and syntax, and well-organized paragraphs. The Department of English reaffirms its commitment to the differential grading scale as defined in the SJSU Catalog ("The Grading System").

Grades issued must represent a full range of student performance:

- A = excellent;
- B = above average;
- C = average;
- D = below average;
- F = failure.

Within any of the letter grade ranges (e.g. B+/B/B-), the assignment of a +(plus) or -(minus) grade will reflect stronger (+) or weaker (-) completion of the goals of the assignment.

Program Learning Outcomes (PLO)

Upon successful completion of an undergraduate degree program in the Department of English and Comparative Literature, students will be able to:

1. Read closely in a variety of forms, styles, structures, and modes, and articulate the value of close reading in the study of literature, creative writing, or rhetoric.
2. Show familiarity with major literary works, genres, periods, and critical approaches to British, American, and World Literature.
3. Write clearly, effectively, and creatively, and adjust writing style appropriately to the content, the context, and nature of the subject.
4. Develop and carry out research projects, and locate, evaluate, organize, and incorporate information effectively.
5. Articulate the relations among culture, history, and texts, including structures of power.

Course Goals

Course Description

This course introduces you to English literature from its early beginnings through the 18th century, with some emphasis on the beginnings of literature in America. With each text, we will consider the relationships between the literary artifact and the culture that produced it. Lectures and discussions will be organized around themes designed to address social and political aspects of the various cultures we will study. We will specifically address the themes related to heroes and monsters/villains, courtship, marriage, gender construction, and colonialization.

Course Goals

The primary goals of this course are to introduce you to major works in English literature, from its early beginnings through the 18th century. In the latter part of the course, we will be paying special attention to the ways in which the “discovery” and colonization of America is represented in literary texts on both continents. With each text, we will consider the relationships between the literary artifact and the culture that produced it.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Read closely in a variety of forms, styles, structures, and modes, and articulate the value of close reading in the study of literature, creative writing, and/or rhetoric (Familiarity with literary forms through reading, lecture, and discussion-assessed by participation grade, reader responses, Sonnet Exercise)
2. Show familiarity with major literary works, genres, periods, and critical approaches to British literature (Final Exam)
3. Write clearly, effectively, and creatively (Essays, Sonnet Exercise)
4. Develop and carry out research projects (Annotated Bibliography)
5. Articulate the relations among culture, history, and texts, including structures of power (Lecture, Final, Essays)

This course serves the department's Learning Outcomes 1 and 2 (LO1 and LO2) by introducing you to a variety of literary forms. You will read poetry in various forms, drama, speeches, travel literature, and narrative non-fiction.

Students are asked to write two essays for this course (a total of at least 3,000 words) including one research assignment; this clearly serves Learning Outcomes 3 and 4 (LO3 and LO4). Assessment of student success in LO3 and LO4 will be measured by their grades on these assignments.

All of my classes are discussion based. Students are asked to come to class prepared to talk about the material they read, and my lectures aim to help students to realize the relations among culture, history, and the texts we read. The ability to articulate the relationships listed in Learning Outcome 5 (LO5) is measured by the students' performance in participation and on the exams.

Course/Program Learning Outcomes	Assessment Measures
LO 1: Read closely in a variety of forms, styles, structures, and modes, and articulate the value of close reading in the study of literature, creative writing, and/or rhetoric	Participation, midterm, and final exam
LO 2: Show familiarity with major literary works, genres, periods, and critical approaches to British literature	Participation, midterm, and final exam
LO 3: Write clearly, effectively, and creatively	Essays, sonnet exercise
LO 4: Develop and carry out research projects	Annotated bibliography
LO 5: Articulate the relations among culture, history, and texts, including structures of power	Participation, midterm, and final exam

☰ Course Requirements and Assignments

Assignments and Grading Policy

Written Work: You will be asked to write two formal essays (1,500 words each) for this class. Both essays will ask you to evaluate a specific topic over several texts and forms. Suggested topics will be posted in advance. If you wish to write on a topic of your own devising, you should discuss the project with me well in advance. These are critical/analytical papers that should clearly demonstrate your own engagement with the texts rather than reformulating someone else's ideas. Your success on these assignments will be directly proportional to your knowledge and understanding of the texts.

Format: Your essay should follow MLA style guidelines which are available here:

<https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/>

Late Papers: Turning in assignments late is unfair to the other students; therefore, I will lower your grade one full letter for each day the paper is late. In the case of emergencies, please see me.

I do not accept emailed assignments.

Weekly "Think Sheets": To promote discussion, brief responses to the readings will be assigned most weeks. The questions or prompts will be posted as part of each relevant module. These assignments will represent 5% of your overall grade for the course. No make-up assignments will be offered for this work.

Research/Annotated Bibliography: In the first half of the semester, you will be asked to generate a research topic and search terms in response to some aspect of our reading. Then, you will produce an annotated bibliography of sources that you find on that topic. Explicit directions will be given in class.

Sonnet Exercise: After the midterm, you will be given an opportunity to respond creatively to the material presented in this course by writing your own sonnet and explaining your choices in a brief rationale.

Participation: A portion (10%) of your grade will be based on your participation in class; therefore, regular attendance, with your camera on, is imperative. If for some reason you are forced to miss a class, it is your responsibility to find out what information and/or assignments you missed. There will be no opportunity to make up missed quizzes or in-class exercises.

In order to receive an A or a B in participation, you must do more than just attend class. You must also demonstrate to me that you have been keeping up with the readings and thinking about the questions raised by the lectures. I expect each of you to engage in the class discussions, participate in group activities, and come to class with the relevant materials.

Exams: There will be two exams for this course: a midterm at week 7 and a final exam. The midterm will cover Beowulf and the literature of the medieval period. The final exam will emphasize the texts discussed later in the semester. Examinations will include identification and explanation of selected passages, as well as essay responses. Exams will be conducted on Canvas using the lockdown browser function. Please make sure that you have a reliable internet connection on exam days.

Department Grading Policy:

In English Department courses, instructors will comment on and grade the quality of student writing as well as the quality of ideas being conveyed. All student writing should be distinguished by correct grammar and punctuation, appropriate diction and syntax, and well-organized paragraphs. Grades issued will represent a full range of student performance and will adhere to the following SJSU academic standards of assessment:

The “A” essay will be well organized and well developed, demonstrating a clear understanding and fulfillment of the assignment. It will show the student’s ability to use language effectively and construct sentences distinguished by syntactic complexity and variety. Such essays will be essentially free of grammatical, mechanical, and usage errors.

The “B” essay will demonstrate competence in the same categories as the “A” essay. The chief difference is that the “B” essay will show some descriptably slight weaknesses in one of those categories. It may slight one of the assigned tasks, show less facility of expression, or contain some minor grammatical, mechanical, or usage flaws.

The “C” essay will complete all tasks set by the assignment, but show weakness in fundamentals (usually development), with barely enough specific information to illustrate the experience or support generalizations. The sentence construction may be less mature, and the use of language less effective and correct than the “B” essay.

The “D” essay will neglect one of the assigned tasks and be noticeably superficial in its treatment of the assignment—that is, too simplistic or short. The essay may reveal some problems in development, with insufficient specific information to illustrate the experience or support generalizations. It will contain grammatical, mechanical, and usage errors that render some sentences incomprehensible.

The “F” essay will demonstrate a striking underdevelopment of ideas and insufficient or unfocused organization. It will contain serious grammatical, mechanical, and usage errors that render some sentences incomprehensible.

“The Department of English reaffirms its commitment to the differential grading scale as defined in the SJSU Catalog (“The Grading System”). Grades issued must represent a full range of student performance: A= excellent; B= above average; C= average; D= below average; F= failure. Courses graded according to the A, B, C, No Credit system shall follow the same pattern, except that NC shall replace D or F. In such cases, NC shall also substitute for W (or Withdrawal) because neither grade (NC or W) affects students’ GPA.”

Grade	Points	Percentage
A	930 to 1000	93 to 100%
A minus	900 to 929	90 to 92%
B plus	860 to 899	86 to 89 %
B	830 to 829	83 to 85%
B minus	800 to 829	80 to 82%

Grade	Points	Percentage
C plus	760 to 799	76 to 79%
C	730 to 759	73 to 75%
C minus	700 to 729	70 to 72%
D plus	660 to 699	66 to 69%
D	630 to 659	63 to 65%
D minus	600 to 629	60 to 62%

“Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally 3 hours per unit per week with 1 of the hours used for lecture) for instruction or preparation/studying or course related activities including but not limited to internships, labs, clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.”
