English 1A is the first course in SJSU’s two-semester lower-division composition sequence; it provides an introduction to baccalaureate-level composition, with attention to the personal voice and personal experience, on the one hand, and the more formal attitudes and demands of writing at the university (expository and argumentative essays), on the other. Students will develop college-level reading abilities, rhetorical sophistication, and writing styles that give form and coherence to complex ideas and feelings. Students will be introduced to citing sources.

GE Learning Outcomes (GELO)
Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate the ability to read actively and rhetorically
2. Demonstrate the ability to perform the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing) and demonstrate an awareness of said performance
3. Articulate an awareness of and write according to the rhetorical features of texts, such as purpose, audience, context, and rhetorical appeals
4. Demonstrate the ability to integrate their ideas and those of others by explaining, analyzing, developing, and criticizing ideas effectively in several genres

Classroom Protocol

Attendance/Professionalism: You will arrive on time and be ready to work at 7:30. Regular attendance is expected of you. If you are not present, you cannot participate. A lack of participation will adversely affect your growth as a writer and your overall grade in this course. Consider this your workplace: appropriate language, dress, and behavior are expected. Tech excuses regarding the failure to compose/type or print work will not be tolerated. Do not text or make/receive phone calls during class. Laptops/ipads, etc., will remain closed during lectures. Please eat and drink prior to coming to class. In most instances, however, bottled water will be acceptable.

Assignments

Writing/Essays: This class requires you to write a minimum of 8000 words, and at least 4000 of which must be in revised form. Five out-of-class essays will be assigned, along with approximately 3 in-class essays. All out-of-class (OC) essays, along with revised in-class (IC) essays, will be typed: (12pt. font, Times New Roman, Double-spaced, one inch margins, with page numbers and word count present somewhere on the page. For further reference, see “MLA Documentation” in your course reader. If you are absent on an in-class essay day, the essay can only be made up by visiting my scheduled office hour or by appointment (the week of). All out-of-class essays are due on the “Due Date.” For illnesses and emergencies, do plan on sending the essay with a classmate or have it submitted via email by (7:00a.m.) the morning of.

Readings: All assigned reading must be completed prior to coming to class. Be prepared to discuss. Quizzes will often provide me the confirmation that you have read. So, be prepared!
Workshop: On peer workshop days, printed copies are required. Failure to make adequate group copies will negatively affect the essay’s overall grade (by approximately 10%). Each student in the group is required to provide his/her feedback. Your workshopped essays must accompany your final essay. A manila folder, along with paper clips/clamps will help keep things organized. A lack of participation (making little to no comments on a peer’s work) will negatively impact your grade and progress as a writer.

Homework: All assigned homework is due at the beginning of the class period. If you are late, your homework will not be accepted. If you are absent, you can pass your homework on to a classmate or submit the homework via email by (7:00a.m.) the morning of. If any homework is assigned (i.e. an addendum to what is on the syllabus) while you are absent, plan on contacting a classmate. Do not contact me!

Participation: Class participation will be a culmination of workshops, in-class freewrites, homework, and quizzes.

Final Exam: This semester’s final will comprise of short in-class reflective essay and a comprehensive exam on grammar and punctuation. You must take/complete the final exam in order to pass the course.

Note: Concerning diversity, some assignments (reading and writing) may in fact address issues of race, class, and gender. I expect you to have an open mind and respect the views of your peers as they will respect yours. Insensitivity will not be tolerated.

Grading Policy:

Grading: A-F. This class must be passed with a C or better to move on to CORE GE Area C3 and to satisfy the prerequisite for English 1B. A passing grade in the course signifies that you, the student, is a capable college-level writer and reader of English.

- The “A” essay will be well-organized and well-developed, demonstrating a clear understanding and fulfillment of the assignment. It will show the student’s ability to use language effectively and to construct sentences distinguished by syntactic complexity and variety. Such essays will be essentially free from grammatical, mechanical, and usage errors.
- The “B” essay will demonstrate competence in the same categories as the “A” essay. The chief difference is that the “B” essay will show some slight weaknesses in one of those categories. It may slight one of the assigned tasks, show less facility of expression, or contain some minor grammatical, mechanical, or usage flaws.
- The “C” essay will complete all tasks set by the assignment, but show weaknesses in fundamentals, usually development, with barely enough specific information to illustrate the experience or support generalizations. The sentence construction may be less mature, and the use of language less effective and correct than the “B” essay.

• The “D” essay will neglect one of the assigned tasks and be noticeably superficial in its treatment of the assignment—that is, too simplistic or too short. The essay may reveal some problems in development, with insufficient specific information to illustrate the experience or support generalizations. It will contain grammatical, mechanical, and/or usage errors that are serious and/or frequent enough to interfere substantially with the writer’s ability to communicate.

• The “F” essay will demonstrate a striking underdevelopment of ideas and insufficient or unfocused organization. It will contain serious grammatical, mechanical, and usage errors that render some sentences incomprehensible.

Note: All essays are graded with a rubric that includes four categories: content and ideas, style, organization, and mechanics.
