Course Description
English 1A is the first course in SJSU’s two-semester lower-division composition sequence; it provides an introduction to baccalaureate-level composition, with attention to the “personal voice” and personal experience, on the one hand, and the more formal attitudes and demands of writing at the university (expository and argumentative essays), on the other. Students will develop college-level reading abilities, rhetorical sophistication, and writing styles that give form and coherence to complex ideas and feelings.

Prerequisites: Placement by the English Proficiency Test (EPT), or passage of an approved substitute course for the EPT.

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives
Students shall achieve the ability to write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency in all of the following:

- Clear and effective communication of meaning.
• An identifiable focus, tailored to a particular audience and purpose (argumentative essays will state their thesis clearly and show an awareness, implied or stated, of some opposing point of view).

• The ability to perform effectively the essential steps of the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).

• The ability to explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively.

• Effective use within their own essays of supporting material drawn from reading or other sources.

• Effective organization within the paragraph and the essay.

• Accuracy, variety, and clarity of sentences.

• Appropriate diction.

• Control of conventional mechanics (e.g., punctuation, spelling, reference, agreement).

Student Learning Objectives:

SLO 1: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to perform effectively the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).

SLO 2: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively.

SLO 3: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to use correct grammar (syntax, mechanics, and citation of sources) at a college level of sophistication.

SLO 4: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to write for different audiences.

Required Texts/Readings

Textbooks

Other equipment / material requirements (optional)

Students will require a notebook/binder and a writing implement for every class.

Library Liaison

Toby Matoush toby.matoush@sjsu.edu

Classroom Protocol (Optional)

General: Students are expected to arrive on time having completed all reading assignments and homework. Failure to do so will negatively impact the student's participation grade.

Conduct: Real growth and learning necessitates a safe and respectful environment. Students are encouraged to share opinions and participate in debate. However, students must support their claims with evidence and must respect their classmates. Any behavior that is inappropriate or constitutes a personal attack will not be tolerated. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be asked to leave class for the day and will receive no credit for class participation that day.

Assignments and Grading Policy

Grading: A-F. This class must be passed with a C or better to move on to CORE GE Area C3 and to satisfy the prerequisite for English 1B. A passing grade in the course signifies that the student is a capable college-level writer and reader of English.

Assignments and Grading Policy:

Participation/Homework (15%): Students are expected to actively engage in class discussion. Because some students are unaccustomed speaking to a large group, part of this grade will include “Warm-Up” exercises which will help students strengthen grammar and critical thinking skills. These Warm Ups will be approximately 75-100 words each. This will address SLO 3. Students may occasionally be required to complete exercises from the textbook for homework.

In-class Essays (20%): Students will write four in-class essays that will be worth 5% each.

- The first essay is a Diagnostic essay to evaluate the student’s strengths and weaknesses in writing.
- The second essay is a mock final. Students will synthesize the knowledge from this course and apply critical thinking skills to a prompt from a previous final.
• The third essay will be a mock final as well, the most recent final prompt will be addressed.

• The fourth essay will ask students to evaluate their growth and development in English over the course of the semester.

Literacy Narrative (10%): Students will prepare an essay recounting an important memory relating to reading and/or writing. They will focus on how this experience altered or influenced their writing.

Proposal Essay (10%) Students will explore the details of a problem that affects their daily lives and then propose a plausible solution. Students will be asked to identify the proper audience for the proposal.

Annotated Bibliography (5%) The Argumentative Essay will be accompanied by an annotated bibliography of no fewer than five entries.

Argumentative Essay (10%) Students will write an argumentative essay. They will combine rhetorical skills with research skills to produce a clear and concise thesis.

Literary Response Essay (10%) Students will respond and evaluate/analyze one of the essays in Atwan's The Best American Essays. No outside sources should be consulted.

All final drafts must include peer edited rough draft.

Revision: Students may revise an essay, using the instructor's remarks to correct their mistakes for up to 1/2 letter grade increase. The student has one week to complete this process.

Final Exam (20%): The same final exam is taken by all of the students taking English 1A during the semester. The English Department requires the final exam to be 20% of the final grade for the course.

Student Technology Resources (Optional)
