Course Description

Section 44: Below you will find the course description that is common to every English 1A class. This paragraph describes our particular section. In section 47 we will pursue the stated 1A goals through process-focused writing with much time spent at writing exercises and assignments in and out of class in the proscribed journal. You will often work in a small-group setting during class time sharing ideas, writing, and leading one class discussion.

All Sections: English 1A is the first course in SJSU’s two-semester lower-division composition sequence; it provides an introduction to baccalaureate-level composition, with attention to the “personal voice” and personal experience, on the one hand, and the more formal attitudes and demands of writing at the university (expository and argumentative essays), on the other. Students will develop college-level reading abilities, rhetorical sophistication, and writing styles that give form and coherence to complex ideas and feelings.

Prerequisites: Placement by the English Proficiency Test (EPT), or passage of an approved substitute course for the EPT.

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives

Students shall achieve the ability to write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency in all of the following:

- Clear and effective communication of meaning.
• An identifiable focus, tailored to a particular audience and purpose (argumentative essays will state their thesis clearly and show an awareness, implied or stated, of some opposing point of view).
• The ability to perform effectively the essential steps of the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).
• The ability to explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively.
• Effective use within their own essays of supporting material drawn from reading or other sources.
• Effective organization within the paragraph and the essay.
• Accuracy, variety, and clarity of sentences.
• Appropriate diction.
• Control of conventional mechanics (e.g., punctuation, spelling, reference, agreement).

Student Learning Objectives:

• SLO 1: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to perform effectively the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).
• SLO 2: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively.
• SLO 3: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to use correct grammar (syntax, mechanics, and citation of sources) at a college level of sophistication.
• SLO 4: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to write for different audiences.

Academic Policies online:

Students, You are responsible for reading the following information online at http://www.sjsu.edu/english/comp/policy/index.html

• Course guidelines
• Academic policies (academic integrity, plagiarism, ADA and DRC policies)
• Adding and dropping classes

Required Texts/Readings

• COMP. ISBN 1-4390-8246-4
• 1 Mead Composition Book, College Ruled. No other journals accepted.
• American Heritage College Dictionary. Paperback. Or similar portable text.
• 5+ yellow books (1 for diagnostic, 3 for in-class essays, 1 for the final, extra)
• Stapler (all papers must be brought to class stapled)
• 1 double-pocket folder
Other Readings

- MyCompLab. This non-required, free online companion to The Curious Writer, if you purchased the text new, is a grammar review and practice system from which I may make individual assignments from time to time. You are encouraged to take advantage of this program.

Other equipment / material requirements

- Regular internet access, especially an email account for assignment updates

Classroom Protocol

Come to class on time; don’t check your texts while in class; use common sense and decent behavior. College students are adults; behave like one. Please do not eat in class.

Assignments and Grading Policy

Grading: A-F. This class must be passed with a C or better to move on to CORE GE Area C3 and to satisfy the prerequisite for English 1B. A passing grade in the course signifies that the student is a capable college-level writer and reader of English.

- The “A” essay will be well-organized and well-developed, demonstrating a clear understanding and fulfillment of the assignment. It will show the student’s ability to use language effectively and to construct sentences distinguished by syntactic complexity and variety. Such essays will be essentially free from grammatical, mechanical, and usage errors.
- The “B” essay will demonstrate competence in the same categories as the “A” essay. The chief difference is that the “B” essay will show some slight weaknesses in one of those categories. It may slight one of the assigned tasks, show less facility of expression, or contain some minor grammatical, mechanical, or usage flaws.
- The “C” essay will complete all tasks set by the assignment, but show weaknesses in fundamentals, usually development, with barely enough specific information to illustrate the experience or support generalizations. The sentence construction may be less mature, and the use of language less effective and correct than the “B” essay.

• The “D” essay will neglect one of the assigned tasks and be noticeably superficial in its treatment of the assignment—that is, too simplistic or too short. The essay may reveal some problems in development, with insufficient specific information to illustrate the experience or support generalizations. It will contain grammatical, mechanical, and/or usage errors that are serious and/or frequent enough to interfere substantially with the writer’s ability to communicate.

• The “F” essay will demonstrate a striking underdevelopment of ideas and insufficient or unfocused organization. It will contain serious grammatical, mechanical, and usage errors that render some sentences incomprehensible.

A word about how I approach grading: I start looking at every composition by asking if it satisfies the requirements of the assignment. If it does, it will earn a satisfactory grade: C. If it does not satisfy the requirements, then the grade slides down to D or F. If the composition does more than simply satisfy the requirements, then the grade slides up to A or B. I will complete a scoring rubric with each graded essay.

Writing: Writing assignments will give repeated practice in all phases of the writing process: prewriting, organizing, writing, revising, and editing. Eight essays are required—4 in-class and 4 out-of-class, for a minimum of 8,000 words. This minimum requirement excludes the final examination, reading responses, quizzes, and any brief or informal assignments. You must complete all 8 essays in order to pass this course.

(SLO1-4)

In-Class Essays (4) approx. 800+ words each: (20% final grade)

#1 Diagnostic Essay
#2 Personal Essay Draft 1
#3 Writing a Response to an Argument
#4 Former Departmental Final

Out of Class Essays, minimum 1200 words each: (40% final grade)

#1 Literacy Narrative
#2 Personal Essay
#3 Writing a Proposal for Two Audiences
#4 Taking a Position

Holistic Final: University mandated (20% of final grade)

Journal/Participation: As specified below: (20% of final grade)

In-class participation in English 1A is required. It is rare that students who miss several classes pass the class. 45% of your grade is based on activities that will be taking place in class. All Journal writing assignments are considered part of your participation grade as do all workshop dates. (SLO 1, 2, 3, 4)

• Workshops are an important component of the writing process and your final essay grade. You will bring 5 copies (or as instructed) to class on the workshop date in order to participate. You will turn in critiqued copies with final essay as instructed: SAVE them. If you miss a workshop, your essay will be graded down.

I have zero-tolerance for late arrival on workshop days: You Will Be Asked to Leave. (SLO 1, 2, 4)
• Journal: In-class free writing, self-assessment, reading responses, and/or directed exercises will comprise part of each day. Bring your Composition Book to every class. (SLO 1, 2, 4)

• Reading: English 1A is a reading-based course. You will have reading assignments to complete for almost every class period, and each reading will be accompanied by some form of writing. In addition, all or most of the assigned essays will be related to readings. It is therefore imperative that you complete the readings prior to each class and come with your book and Journal Responses prepared to discuss them in class. Occasionally, there may be reading quizzes. All readings in this course address diversity and contribute to effective writing strategies (SLO 1-4).

• Student Presentation: Each student will participate in a group presentation and will be graded individually and as a group contributor (SLO 4).

• Quizzes (SLO 2, 3) Occasional quizzes will be based on current writing and/or reading discussions. Quizzes must be taken in class and cannot be made up. Unannounced quizzes may be given at my discretion.

• Individual Conference One conference with me by appointment is mandatory for each student. (Participation; SLO 1-4) This will be scheduled Tuesday, October 11. Time tbd.

Grammar: Basic grammar will not be a major component of class content, BUT it is a major component of essay grades. It is your responsibility to seek additional support through LARC, the Reading Center and MyCompLab or other online tutorials. (SLO 3)

The University Essay: A common essay final, graded holistically, shall count 20% toward the course grade. The final will be held on Saturday, December 6, 8:00 a.m. THIS TEST IS MANDATORY TO PASS THIS COURSE. The test will consist of an in-class essay on a specific topic. Please be on time and bring 2 Yellow exam books, pens, and a (non-electronic) dictionary.

Extra Credit Attending ONE approved author reading with written response. (SLO 2; diversity) Extra credit will not change a grade from failing to passing. The assignment counts as one quiz.

Late Work. Late work receives a reduction of 1 grade per class session it is late. If the paper is turned in after the class period on the assigned due date, the essay will be graded down half a letter grade. If you are sick or have to miss class for any other reason on the day something is due, arrange to have a classmate turn it in if you do not want a grade reduction. For extenuating circumstances, I must be contacted before the due date to consider an extension.

No Work by Email. No work in my mailbox. No exceptions. I do not accept work by email or in my campus mailbox. If you need to miss a class session, ask a classmate to turn in your classwork and to collect handouts and assignments for you. Otherwise, turn in the paper as “late” next class session.
Your Responsibility If You’re Absent. If you miss class, contact a classmate to get notes, assignments, etc. It is your responsibility to figure out what’s going on and to show up prepared for the next class session. Please do not ask me to do extra things for you if you choose not to come to class.

Always bring your journal and required text to class. These are required for participation. If you’re not prepared to contribute to the class, be prepared to be asked to leave for the day.

Homework format: (this includes all Essays, and any work outside the Journal)
* All work must be typed, double spaced
* Use a 12-point Times Roman font
* Use standard MLA essay heading format. (Curious Writer pg 312).
* Papers must be single-sided for the teacher (but copies for classmates for peer revision may be double-sided)
* Staple your papers BEFORE class. I do not accept unstapled work. (no paper clips, bent corners)

Be Fully Present No electronic devices are to be on/used/visible during class.
Infractions will result in being dismissed from class.

Student Technology Resources (Optional)
Computer labs for student use are available in the Academic Success Center located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall and on the 2nd floor of the Student Union. Additional computer labs may be available in your department/college. Computers are also available in the Martin Luther King Library. More information found here http://www.sjsu.edu/at/asc/

Peer Connections (Optional)
The Learning Assistance Resource Center (LARC) and the Peer Mentor Program have merged to become Peer Connections. Peer Connections is the new campus-wide resource for mentoring and tutoring. Our staff is here to inspire students to develop their potential as independent learners while they learn to successfully navigate through their university experience. Students are encouraged to take advantage of our services which include course-content based tutoring, enhanced study and time management skills, more effective critical thinking strategies, decision making and problem-solving abilities, and campus resource referrals. In addition to offering small group, individual, and drop-in tutoring for a number of undergraduate courses, consultation with mentors is available on a drop-in or by appointment basis. See the Peer Connections website for more information http://peerconnections.sjsu.edu/

SJSU Writing Center (Optional)
The SJSU Writing Center is located in Room 126 in Clark Hall. It is staffed by professional instructors and upper-division or graduate-level writing specialists from each of the seven SJSU colleges. Our writing specialists have met a rigorous GPA requirement, and they are well trained to assist all students at all levels within all disciplines to become better writers. The Writing Center website is located at http://www.sjsu.edu/writingcenter/about/staff/.
