Course Description: English 1B is the second course in SJSU’s two-semester lower-division composition sequence. Beyond providing repeated practice in planning and executing essays, and broadening and deepening students’ understanding of the genres, audiences, and purposes of college writing, English 1B differs from English 1A in its emphasis on persuasive and critical writing (with less attention paid to the personal essay), its requirement for fewer but longer essays, and its introduction to writing informed by research. Students will develop sophistication in writing analytical, argumentative, and critical essays; a mature writing style appropriate to university discourse; reading abilities that will provide an adequate foundation for upper-division work; proficiency in basic library research skills and in writing papers informed by research; and mastery of the mechanics of writing.

Prerequisites: Passage of Written Communication 1A (C or better) or approved equivalent

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives
Building on the college-level proficiencies required in English 1A, students shall achieve the ability to write complete essays that demonstrate advanced proficiency in all of the following:

- Clear and effective communication of meaning.
- An identifiable focus (argumentative essays will state their thesis clearly and will show an awareness, implied or stated, of some opposing point of view).
- An appropriate voice that demonstrates an awareness of audience and purpose.
- Careful attention to review and revision.
- Effective and correct use of supporting materials, including independent research (e.g., quoting, paraphrasing, summarizing, and citing sources);
- Effective analysis, interpretation, evaluation, and synthesis of ideas encountered in multiple readings.
- Effective organization and development of ideas at paragraph and essay levels.
- Appropriate and effective sentence structure and diction.
- Command of conventional mechanics (e.g., punctuation, spelling, reference, agreement).
Student Learning Objectives:
SLO 1: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to refine the competencies established in Written Communication 1A.

SLO 2: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to use (locate, analyze, and evaluate) supporting materials, including independent library research, and identify key concepts and terms that describe the information needed.

SLO 3: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to select efficient and effective approaches for accessing information utilizing an appropriate investigative method or information retrieval system.

SLO 4: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to synthesize ideas encountered in multiple readings.

SLO 5: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to incorporate principles of design and communication to construct effective arguments.

SLO 6: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to identify and discuss issues related to censorship and freedom of speech.

Required Texts/Readings:

Other Equipment / Material Requirements:
✔ Three ring binder with dividers for Portfolio
✔ Plenty of binder paper
✔ Blue or Black Pens
✔ Computer access
✔ Email account

Classroom Protocol:
Reading: Critical reading is an important part of your success in college. In English 1B, you will annotate, summarize and respond to written work (as well as visual work). These skills will not only help you in this course, but will carry you through the rest of your academic career at San Jose State. Read and annotate the texts assigned in the syllabus before coming to class so you can participate in class discussions.

Conferences: I will schedule appointments with each student at least once this semester. But I encourage you to come to my office hours (listed above) or arrange an appointment with me any time you have questions or need assistance with your readings, writings, or revisions.

Assignment due dates: The due dates for your writing assignments are listed on the schedule of assignments. I do not accept late work. If you have an emergency and cannot hand in a paper on time, you must see me to discuss the nature of the emergency and to make mutually acceptable plans for completing the assignment. You can begin this process by emailing me or leaving a phone message at my office.
Essay format: All essays, including your rough drafts, must be typed (12 point, Times New Roman font) and double-spaced with one-inch margins all around the numbered pages; use the following heading for your essay assignments:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Student Name</th>
<th>Hicok Parker</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>English 1B</td>
<td>Assignment Title</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Due Date</td>
<td>Your Centered Title</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Turnitin.com: All major assignments (with the exception of the in-class essay) must be submitted to turnitin.com on or before the due date. I will not grade the paper copy of an assignment until an electronic copy is submitted to turnitin.com. In order to submit papers to the class account, you will need the class ID, which is 5982589, and the password, which is “ENGL1B24”.

Attendance: I will be using your journals and workshops as a way to monitor your attendance. Missing a day of class means not completing a journal entry or contributing in a peer review and these cannot be made-up. Thus, the grade you get for your participation will reflect your attendance.

Peer Review Workshops: As with all other class meetings, your attendance on these days is mandatory. During peer review workshops you will be helping others in your writing groups and learning important strategies for rewriting—a key concept in this class. On peer workshop days, you will bring three typed copies of your draft. During the workshop you will present your paper to your group who will, in turn, analyze and critique your work. After your presentation, your group members will give you feedback on the “Peer Workshop Inquiry Script.”

Classroom Etiquette: Please . . .
- Turn off all electronic devices: cell phones, i-pods, blackberries, etc.
  - Exception—you may use a laptop for note-taking.
- Do not wear headsets, hats, or sunglasses in class.
- Speak loudly so that people can hear you at the far end.
- Treat others as you would like to be treated.
- Respect everyone’s opinions; there will be a lot of them.
- Support your claims and opinions with evidence.

SJSU Writing Center: The SJSU Writing Center is located in Clark Hall, Suite 126. All Writing Specialists have gone through a rigorous hiring process, and they are well trained to assist all students at all levels within all disciplines to become better writers. In addition to one-on-one tutoring services, the Writing Center also offers workshops every semester on a variety of writing topics. To make an appointment or to refer to the numerous online resources offered through the Writing Center, visit the Writing Center website: http://www.sjsu.edu/writingcenter. <td>Final Reflective Analysis Essay</td>
<td>Instead of a final exam, you will write a critical reflection at the end of the class. Think of it as a scientific study of your progress as a writer over the next four months. Remember, writing is a process. Collecting your work and then reflecting on that work is part of the process. The final assignment is designed to get you thinking about your specific challenges, your strategies for improvement, your successes and failures, and your goals for the future. Every writer, no matter how accomplished, has room for improvement. This assignment is your culminating experience. This course does not have a final exam. 1200-1400 words.</td>
