Course Description
Introduction to Creative Writing (English 71) is a 3-unit lower-division course designed, adopted, implemented, and administered by the Department of English & Comparative Literature at San Jose State University in accordance with the University’s General Education Program Guidelines to fulfill Core General Education requirements in the Letters area of Humanities & the Arts. Also note that this course is an elective in the English major and Creative Writing minor. It is a prerequisite for taking upper division Creative Writing workshops.

In this course, we will read, discuss and write poetry, creative non-fiction and short fiction. The course will be taught using a combination of reading, discussion, written response and writing workshops. In the discussion, contemporary and historical published works will be closely read and analyzed. In the writing workshops, creative work written by class members will be analyzed and critiqued for revision. Written responses will display analytical acumen, personal sensibility, and serious engagement with the text.

Prerequisites: I recommend at minimum the completion of English Composition1A or equivalent. Excellent composition skills are the basis for any Creative Writing.

Departmental Student Learning Objectives
In the Department of English and Comparative Literature, students will demonstrate the ability to: (SLO’s)

1. read closely in a variety of forms, styles, structures, and modes, and articulate the value of close reading in the study of literature, creative writing, and/or rhetoric;
2. show familiarity with major literary works, genres, periods, and critical approaches to British, American and World Literature;
3. write clearly, effectively, and creatively, and adjust writing style appropriately to the content, the context, and the nature of the subject;
4. develop and carry out research projects, and locate, evaluate, organize, and incorporate information effectively;
5. articulate the relations among culture, history, and texts.

English 71 Course Goals:

Students enrolled in Introduction to Creative Writing will learn to:

1) Decipher and understand the form and content of assigned literary works;
2) Comprehend the historical and cultural contexts of assigned literary works;
3) Recognize the accomplishments of and issues related to writing by men and women representing diverse cultural traditions;
4) Acquire through both individual and collaborative/workshop efforts of a written and oral nature the skills necessary for reading, discussing, analyzing, interpreting, and—most importantly—emulating and writing works of poetry, creative nonfiction, and short fiction;
5) Communicate such skills with clarity and precision;
6) Develop an appreciation of literary works as expressions of human intellect and imagination, and as representations of diverse human cultures;
7) Develop the ability to write literary works that express intellect and imagination and that represent diversity in human cultures;
8) Respond to literature through clear and effective communication in both written and oral work;
9) Read and respond to texts with both analytical acumen and personal sensibility;
10) Appreciate how literary works illuminate enduring human concerns while also representing matters specific to a particular culture;
11) Write works of poetry, creative nonfiction, and short fiction that are of interest and value to the writer, to other students in the course, and to a diverse reading audience.

Assignments and Grading Policy

WRITING AND WORKSHOP Each student will revise and submit the following new writing. This includes bringing copies for workshop and participating in workshop. (SLO #3, 4)

Self-Portrait Diagnostic Incoming, outgoing.

Creative Nonfiction: Memoir piece (approximately 4 pages)
- Short-short (<500 words)
- Setting Sketch (2 pages)

Fiction:
- Short story (approximately 4 pages)
- Character Sketch (2 pages)
- Conversion piece (2 pages)

Poetry:
- 3 poems (English Sonnet; Ghazal; Free Verse). Poems to be presented in a final, revised Portfolio at the end of the semester.

Daily Reading: Selections chosen from our texts, visiting authors, and selected outside material are required not only for your success in this class, but your success as a writer. Regular written responses are required. (SLO #1, 2, 5)

Journal: You are required to keep a well-organized journal/notebook in which you will do assigned creative writing activities inside and outside class. You will also record your responses to the assigned readings here. You are urged to write down quotes from your readings that you may want to share with your classmates. You can also use your journal to develop drafts of new material or simply to react to what is working in your imagination as you respond to ideas and work presented by others in the course. Your notebook is due at the end of each section. You will be graded on the quality and quantity of your entries. (SLO #1, 2, 3, 5)

2 Literary Event Response Papers: You must attend two literary events this semester on or off campus. Write a 1-2 page paper that focuses on your personal response to the event: What did you like and why? What did you learn? What surprised you and why? What did you find interesting and why? What questions did it raise? Would you attend a similar event again? Why or why not? Etc. At the top left of your paper list the title of the event, and the day, time and location. (SLO 1, 3, 5) For information about literary events see: (SLO #3, 5)

Poetry Reading: Each student will give an in-class reading from their final poetry packet at the end of the semester. (SLO 1, 2)

Assignment Format

All prose assignments handed in (except the journal/notebook) should be typed 12 pt. font and double-spaced with page numbers. Poetry is single spaced. Multi-page assignments must be stapled. Your name, my name, the assignment title, and the date single-spaced should be included at the top Left of the first page (MLA format). Failure to adhere to these simple regulations will damage your grade in the course. Please buy a stapler. (LO 3, 5)
Class Workshop Procedures: For each unit (poetry, fiction, nonfiction) the class will divide into groups of approximately five students each. These will serve as your workshop groups. Your workshop group will consist of different students each unit, so you will get to read work by all of your classmates. Every time you turn in a piece of your work, you will bring enough copies for everyone in your workshop group and your teacher and yourself (six copies, usually). We will critique the pieces at home (writing directly on the manuscripts) and discuss them in workshop groups during the following class period. At the end of the discussion, you will get to keep the marked-up copies of your work. I have zero tolerance for late arrival to Workshop: you will be asked to leave. (LO 1)

Extra Credit Attending ONE additional approved author reading with written response. (LO 2; diversity) Extra credit will not change a grade from failing to passing. Counts as one quiz.

Grading:
Grades will be based on the quality and quantity of writing you do as well as the quality and constructiveness of the criticism offered during the workshops.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT GRADING STATEMENT: In English Department courses, instructors comment on and grade the quality of writing as well as the quality of ideas being conveyed. All your writing should be distinguished by correct grammar and punctuation, appropriate diction and syntax, and well-organized paragraphs.

Grades given conform to the English Department and university grading policy. The Department of English is committed to the differential grading scale as defined in the official SJSU Catalog (“The Grading System”). Grades issued must represent a full range of student performance: A = excellent; B = above average; C = average; D = below average; F = failure.

Creative writing, though subject to the instructor's individual subjectivity, can be evaluated according to general standards used to determine how well a piece of writing works. These include: 1) Textual and/or technical competence and eloquence. 2) Imaginative risk. 3) Energy and freshness of language. 4) Effective use of metaphor and other forms of figurative language. 5) Clarity and precision of detail. 6) Capacity for mixed feelings and uncertainty. 7) Effective use of grammar, syntax, rhythm; also meter, rhyme, and other elements of poetic style and form. 8) Naturalness and believability. 9) Appropriateness of style to subject. 10) Compelling audience interest.

Final grades in this section will be the product of the following factors based on a 4pt scale where 4=A:

- Fiction* 20%
- Poetry* 20%
- Non-fiction* 20%
- Journal 20%
- Class participation*, Quizzes, Conference, 20%
  Poetry Reading, Self-Portraits, and Event Papers

*Full participation in scheduled Workshop effects BOTH genre grade and participation grade;
A minimum of one meeting in my office, scheduled by YOU, is required during the semester before the last full week of classes.

GOOD teacher/BAD teacher: Attendance and Classroom Policies

Meet with Me! I’m hanging out in my office hours just for YOU! Try and come in throughout the semester to discuss your prose and poetry. An appointment is recommended even during office hours so you don’t have to wait around. Take advantage of some one-on-one time.

Late Work. Late work receives a reduction of 1 grade per class session it is late. If the paper is turned in after the class period on the assigned due date, the essay will be graded down half a letter grade. If you are sick or have to miss class for any other reason on the day something is due, arrange to have a classmate turn it in if you do not want a grade reduction. For extenuating circumstances, I must be contacted before the due date to consider an extension.
No Work by Email. No work in my mailbox. No exceptions. I do not accept work by email or in my campus mailbox. If you need to miss a class session, ask a classmate to turn in your classwork and to collect handouts and assignments for you. Otherwise, turn in the paper as “late” next class session.

Your Responsibility If You’re Absent. If you miss class, contact a classmate to get notes, assignments, etc. It is your responsibility to figure out what’s going on and to show up prepared the next class session. Please do not ask me to do extra things for you if you choose not to come to class.

Always bring your journal and required texts to class. These are required for participation. If you’re not prepared to contribute to the class, be prepared to be asked to leave for the day.

Homework format: (this includes all written work outside the Journal)
* All work must be typed, double spaced
* Use a 12-point Times Roman font
* Use standard MLA essay heading format.
* Papers must be single-sided for the teacher (but copies for classmates for peer revision may be double-sided)
* Staple your papers BEFORE class. I do not accept unstapled work.(no paper clips, bent corners)

Be Fully Present No electronic devices are to be on/used/visible during class.
Infractions will result in being dismissed from class.

ENGL 71: Introduction to Creative Writing

WRITING DIAGNOSTIC PROMPT

Instructions:
Read the writing sample directions below:

1. Read the poem "Self-Portrait" by Adam Zagajewski (aloud if possible).
2. Notice the details included in the poem. Make a list of them.
3. Notice the order and organization of details; how they are arranged in the text.
4. Write a poem or a 250-500 word prose piece that is your self-portrait, modeled on the Adam Zagajewski poem. Select specific details for your self-portrait as Zagajewski has done, arranging them in such a way as to reveal interesting things about yourself.
5. Save your response in a Word file labeled "Your Name: Pre-Course Writing Sample."
6. Put your student number on the top left-hand corner of the page. DO NOT PUT YOUR NAME ON THE PAGE CONTAINING THE TEXT OF YOUR SELF-PORTRAIT.
7. Print 2 copies.
8. Attach a cover sheet to your self-portrait assignment containing your name, SJSU ID number, date, and the section number of the course.

DUE:_______________________ (Must be typed using a readable font, such as Times New Roman)
SELF PORTRAIT

Between the computer, a pencil, and a typewriter half my day passes. One day it will be half a century.
I live in strange cities and sometimes talk with strangers about matters strange to me.
I listen to music a lot: Bach, Mahler, Chopin, Shostakovich.
I see three elements in music: weakness, power, and pain.
The fourth has no name.
I read poets, living and dead, who teach me tenacity, faith, and pride. I try to understand the great philosopher—but usually catch just scraps of their precious thoughts.
I like to take long walks on Paris streets and watch my fellow creatures, quickened by envy, anger, desire; to trace a silver coin passing from hand to hand as it slowly loses its round shape (the emperor’s profile is erased).
Beside me trees expressing nothing but a green, indifferent perfection.
Black birds pace the fields,
waiting patiently like Spanish widows.
I’m no longer young, but someone else is always older.
I like deep sleep, when I cease to exist, and fast bike rides on country roads when poplars and houses dissolve like cumuli on sunny days.
Sometimes in museums the paintings speak to me
and irony suddenly vanishes.
I love gazing at my wife’s face.
Every Sunday I call my father.
Every other week I meet with friends,
thus proving my fidelity.
My country freed itself from one evil. I wish another liberation would follow.
Could I help in this? I don’t know.
I’m truly not a child of the ocean,
as Antonio Machado wrote about himself,
but a child of air, mint, and cello
and not all the ways of the high world cross paths with the life that—so far—belongs to me.

—Adam Zagajewski (translated by Clare Cavanagh)
