The celebrated

BATTLE PIECE

Sung by Messrs. Helme, Pillbrow, Herbert, Williams, Davies, and Mr. Herbert, at the Royal Circus, in

BLACK BEARD

The Words by J. C. Crofts

Composed by J. Sanderson

Entered at Stationer's Hall.

Price

Printed by Longman and Broderip No. 26 Cheapside and 13 Haymarket Stand to your Guns our Cannon's thunder soon shall strike the Foe with wonder

Fire fire away fire fire away
We've rak'd 'em on the Larbord quarter

We've

A Shot my Heart's 'tween wind and water rak'd 'em on the Larbord quarter
A Shot my Hearts 'tween wind and water
She

f'trikes she f'trikes Huz-za
f'trikes she f'trikes Huz-za
f'trikes she f'trikes Huz-za
f'trikes she f'trikes Huz-za

Huz-za
Huz-za
Huz-za
Huz-za
unis:

(Boatswain) Solo

Full of riches brave

All? Modo?

Mates we take her in tow

Under Hatches her Crew will be stowed soon below (1st Sailor)

A Prince's our brave Captain's

A Prince's our brave Captain's prize

A Prince's our brave Captain's
prize
prize
prize (Boat's Mate Solo) The Mogul's vaunting Colours are torn to a
prize
The Mogul's vaunting Colours are torn to a Triumphant above flies the Pirate's Black Flag which the Triumphant above flies the Pirate's Black world's daring efforts defies Triumphant above flies the Flag flies the Pirate's black flag Triumphant above flies the Triumphant above flies the Pirates black flag which the world's daring efforts defies

(Boatswain Solo)

Now 'bout Ship put the rudder boys Spring
To the sportive gale To harbour girls and boozing boys we merrily set sail. Now

To the sportive gale To harbour girls and boozing boys we merrily set sail. Now