

Employees who perform work at home may be authorized to keep San José State University property at their residence. The property must be used solely for university related purposes.

If home use of computer equipment is authorized, software loaded onto these machines must be San José State university legally licensed, and not "bootlegged". Installation of personally owned/purchased software is prohibited. The university is not responsible for legal sanctions and claims against an employee who has loaded unlicensed software onto these machines.

Computers running Microsoft Windows operating systems should be kept patched with the latest hot-fixes and updates from Microsoft. Anti-virus definitions should also be kept current. Keeping the computer current requires periodic connectivity to the Internet for downloading updates.

Employees must complete the information below and obtain approval of the department property custodian before removing any property from the campus. The original form shall be kept on file in the department and a copy sent to the Property Coordinator. Employees will be required to bring the property back to campus to be included in the department's regularly scheduled equipment inventory.

Upon termination of employment, the employee's supervisor will be responsible for ensuring the return of the equipment to the university. When equipment is returned the department is responsible for notifying the Property Coordinator in Accounting Services at extension 4-1595.
