

Exhausted from your Insta-Snap-Tweeting Life?

Sociological & Theological Reflections on Technology

Talk by Dr. Felicia Song, author of
Friday, Nov 1 @ 1pm in the MPR @ CV2
Refreshments will be provided

Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat. While these social media can help us connect with family, friends, and colleagues, they can also exploit the fears and insecurities that shape complex human relationships. How are the commercial interests behind our screens shaping who we are becoming? And how should communities of faith negotiate these contemporary dictates of the digital? Sociological analysis and theological reflection are brought together to address these key questions of our modern-day dilemmas.

