Student Organization Code of Conduct Violations:

- (1) Aiding and Abetting:
 - (B) A student organization aiding and abetting another person or group in violation of a University policy or procedure or local, state, or federal law.
- (1) Aiding and Abetting:
 - (C) Encouraging, permitting, or assisting another to do any act that could subject him or her to discipline.
- (C) Failure to follow all policies and procedures established by the University pertaining to student organizations, including fraternities and sororities, as outlined in the Student Organizations Handbook.
- (18) Risk Management of Events

Sanctions:

- Formal Warning effective March 27, 2025.
No disciplinary action will be taken by Student Conduct and Ethical Development on these charges. As a result of Conference, the student organization was informed of San José State University's policies and procedures; henceforth the student organization is placed on notice and is expected to maintain the community standards of the University.
- Continuation of the Cease and Desist Order until the end of the Student Conduct appeal process or until accepting of the proposed sanctions.

- A Cease and Desist Order stipulates that the organization is restricted from conducting and/or participating in organized or community activities. This includes, but is not limited to, participating in or hosting social events, philanthropy, fundraisers, service activities, and/or meetings of any kind.
- While active, a Cease and Desist Order requires that any organization-related communication involving active members and pledges/new members must be limited to the distribution and clarification of conduct-related sanctions.
- Communication includes, but is not limited to, in-person meetings, email, SMS messages, and social media. A violation of a cease and desist directive may lead to more severe university sanctions that could, among other sanctions, include the organization's permanent withdrawal of recognition from the institution.
