

BEST GLOBAL LEADERSHIP RESEARCH AWARD

Global Leadership Advancement Center Best Research Award Co-winners for 2016

From Cross-Cultural Management to Global Leadership: Evolution and Adaptation, published in Journal of World Business, Vol. 51(1), 115-126.

The authors provide a quasi-historical review of how the field of global leadership evolved. In doing so, they conceptually map an overall trajectory of the field of global leadership, discussing the nature of its origins in the field of cross-cultural management. They trace evolutionary trends in the field of cross-cultural management from 1960 to the present, and explore how these trends influenced the formation of the global leadership literature. After reviewing the primary domains of the global leadership field, they conclude with a discussion of the implications of our analysis for future research and managerial practice.
