Canvas and MYSJSU Messaging

This course has a hybrid synchronous structure, which means that we meet once per week in class or via Zoom and conduct the remainder of the work online through the Canvas LMS and the online textbook Globalyceum. Course materials such as syllabus, handouts, notes, assignment instructions, etc. can be found on the Canvas learning management system course website. You are responsible for regularly checking with the messaging system through Canvas to learn of any updates.

Course Description

An introduction to the skills, technology and technique of history reading, writing and research. It is a prerequisite to History 100W. Sophomores and transferring juniors are required to take this course. Prerequisite: Open to history majors only; lower or upper division standing.

Learning Outcomes

At the end of this course you will be able to:

1. Think like a Historian: devise and investigate historical questions and debates
2. Read like a Historian: locate the thesis and argument of different types of historical literature
3. Write like a Historian: compose and revise history essays according to disciplinary conventions of organization and style
4. Research like a Historian: locate and appraise secondary and primary sources to plan and write a research essay
5. Cite like a Historian – Apply the conventions of Chicago style citations appropriately and accurately
6. Engage like a Historian – Examine the different ways that historians apply their knowledge and skills

Classroom Protocol

This course will consider controversial issues in the political, social, economic, and cultural history of the United States and the effects of inequality and privilege on the development of American society and institutions. Students are expected to read and be prepared for class discussions during which they will conduct themselves in a civil and respectful manner. Students should avoid colloquial language, characterizations, remarks, or outright slurs that pertain to groups in the abstract or to their fellow students in particular.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester's Catalog Policies section at <http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html>. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic calendar web page located at http://www.sjsu.edu/academic_programs/calendars/academic_calendar/. The Late Drop Policy is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/>. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.

Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at <http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/>.

Academic Honesty

Your commitment, as a student, to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University Academic Integrity Policy S07-2, at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S07-2.pdf> requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/>. All work submitted in this course must be your own and plagiarism detection tools such as Turnitin and Arc will be used to monitor academic honesty.

| Research Paper | 150 | CLO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 |
| Research paper group meetings | 50 | CLO 1, 3 |
| Total | 900 | |

Thesis Writing Assignments.

Every week you will analyze a series of primary documents using the Globalyceum online textbook and use your analysis to write a thesis. Your analysis and thesis will usually be the basis of in class discussion and activities, so these will be due before class every week (Sunday night by 11:55pm)

Short Papers

In each unit you will choose one of your primary source analysis and thesis to turn into a short paper (3-4 pages). You must submit your outline (20 points) and draft (30 points).

Revised Short Paper

You will choose one of the short papers you submitted as a draft and revise it according to instructor and peer feedback. Your paper will be graded according to how well you incorporated feedback and correct use of historical conventions and citations.

Group Presentations

Each instructor-created group will present sourcing and contextualization information on one of the topics from the "Write a thesis" assignments. Groups will need to present together on the context and background to the topic, evaluate the primary sources, and detail their process and results finding secondary sources that could be used in the short paper on the topic.

Class Assignments

Students will gain credit for working in groups in class, participating in polls, and completing assignments that were begun in class.

Research Paper

Through the semester you will develop a 6-8 page research paper on a topic chosen by your group. You will need to work together to develop a historical question and find and evaluate sources. You will write your own paper, but incorporate feedback from the instructor and others in your group. Each group will meet with the instructor to discuss progress and get feedback on their ideas and writing.

Late papers

Late papers will be severely penalized (at least one full letter grade per day). The instructor reserves the right to refuse late papers.

Extra Credit

Students may get extra credit for attending virtual history-related events or completing career-related activities.

Writing Standard Test

If you have not taken the Writing Skills Test (WST), you will need to take it during this semester. When you have completed this class and passed the WST you will be eligible to sign up for History 100W.
