CHICANX/LATINX
STUDENT SUCCESS CENTER

About Centro

The Chicana/Latina Student Success Center (also known as Centro) will understand and respond to Latinx/a/o students unique needs through campus community advocacy and student empowerment.

A culturally-sustaining, academically-affirming space where students, staff, and faculty can collaborate to find new and effective ways of increasing Latinx/a/o student persistence, retention, and graduation rates.

Centro provides spaces that validate students' intersecting identities, affirm their academic capabilities, develop their leadership skills, and foster healthy relationships, while promoting civic and community engagement.
