

I-HOUSE MEETS HONORSX

Thursday, 4.20.23 3:45-5:15 pm

Cross-Cultural Workshop with HonorsX

Topic: Choices by Culture: Food for Health and Environment

HonorsX student are invited to dinner at I-House following the class!

SJSU |

INTERNATIONAL HOUSE

About I-House

I-House is home to US and international students attending SJSU.

Residents from around the world live together in a cross-culturally diverse and supportive environment.

Activities include cross-cultural workshops, an internationally-inspired pancake breakfast, regional dinners, intramural sports, student council, trips, and much more.

I-House engages with campus departments & community organizations.

<http://www.sjsu.edu/ihouse>

SJSU

HONORS

About HonorsX

HonorsX is an interdisciplinary Minor that focuses on analyzing and addressing the most pressing problems of our time. Our 2023-24 topic: “Developing Sustainable Societies.”

Take three team-taught HonorsX courses, the first in Summer ‘23, the second in Fall ‘23, and the third in Spring ‘24. The final six units of the HonorsX minor are flexible. Add a GE course, UNVS 101 (Leadership & Accelerator course), an internship, or an elective.

Receive a full-tuition scholarship for the 3-unit Summer ‘23 HonorsX course. The course runs for three weeks, from July 17th to August 4th. Your scholarship includes four nights in SJSU dorms. Meals are included!

<https://www.sjsu.edu/honorsx/>