

MOSAIC MEETS HONORSX

Wednesday, 3.15.23

About MOSAIC

The MOSAIC Cross Cultural Center is a student resource center focused on diversity and social justice engagement. MOSAIC provides a wealth of resources for students, education around social justice issues, and advocates for students through issues of identity and the institution.

MOSAIC also provides workshops and training for staff and faculty as well as student organizations, student leaders, and classrooms.

Come to MOSAIC in person (in the Student Union), connect through our Instagram account (@sjsumosaic), or connect digitally through our podcast (sjsu.edu/mosaic/podcast).

<https://www.sjsu.edu/mosaic/>

About HonorsX

HonorsX is an interdisciplinary program unlike any other. It focuses on analyzing and addressing the most pressing problems of our time. Our 2023-24 topic: “Developing Sustainable Societies.”

Take three team-taught HonorsX courses, the first in Summer ‘23, the second in Fall ‘23, and the third in Spring ‘24. The final six units are flexible. You may add a GE course, UNVS 101 (Leadership & Accelerator course), an internship, or an elective.

Receive a full-tuition scholarship for the 3-unit Summer ‘23 HonorsX course. The course runs for three weeks, from July 17th to August 4th. Your scholarship includes four nights in SJSU dorms. Meals are included!

Email HonorsX@sjsu.edu with questions

<https://www.sjsu.edu/honorsx/>