About HonorsX

HonorsX is an interdisciplinary Minor that focuses on analyzing and addressing the most pressing problems of our time. Our 2023-24 topic: "Developing Sustainable Societies."

Take three team-taught HonorsX courses, the first in Summer '23, the second in Fall '23, and the third in Spring '24. The final six units in the minor are flexible. You may add a GE course, UNVS 101 (Leadership & Accelerator course), an internship, or an elective.

Receive a full tuition scholarship for the 3-unit Summer '23 HonorsX course. The course runs for three weeks, from July 17th to August 4th. Your scholarship includes four nights in SJSU dorms. Meals are included!
