

SAN JOSÉ STATE UNIVERSITY HOUSING SERVICES CONFERENCE SERVICES 2018 SUMMER CONFERENCE ASSISTANT APPLICANT INFO PACKET

Thank you for your interest in Summer Conference Services!

The Conference Assistants' (CAs) main responsibility is to assist the Conference Coordinator with day-to-day operations of the residence halls during the summer months. Between June 1 and August 10, University Housing Services and SJSU host many diverse groups and individuals that are visiting the San José area and utilizing our conference services.

CAs play an integral role in facilitating a successful conference services program by serving as ambassadors to the university and surrounding community, providing exceptional customer service, assisting in the various administrative processes, and providing a welcoming experience to our summer guests. Through interaction with guests of all ages, we have a unique opportunity to promote the university to future students, parents and members of the community. Summer Conferences is also a great opportunity to enhance your skills and work with a great team in a fast-paced and dynamic environment!

SAN JOSÉ STATE UNIVERSITY HOUSING SERVICES CONFERENCE SERVICES SUMMER 2018

Job Expectations: Desk Conference Assistant (DCA)

Expectations:

Guest Services: DCAs are responsible for contributing to the overall management, operation, and effectiveness of the Conference Services program through services provided to guests at the Conference Services Front Desk. This includes, but is not limited to, facilitating guest check-in/out procedures, processing payments, assisting with room assignments, administering keys, managing front desk hospitality and services, and addressing safety and security needs of guests.

University Liaison: DCAs serve as liaisons to many areas of SJSU. This includes providing guests with information and resources to different university departments, and offering a positive image of University Housing Services, SJSU, and the campus community. UHS works closely with many university departments such as University Police, Parking Services, Spartan Shops/Dining Commons, Event/Aquatic Center, Student Union Inc., and other academic departments that may sponsor conference programs.

Administrative Tasks: DCAs are responsible for processing and following up on reservations, payment forms, and other paperwork related to daily operations. DCAs assist in maintaining an organized and efficient front desk area. Many of the required administrative tasks require PC skills, specifically in Microsoft Word, Excel, Access, and StarRez (an occupancy management database). General office tasks are also required, such as word processing, filing, correspondence, and answering phones.

Training and Staff Meetings: All conference staff members are required to participate in training and staff meetings. Staff meetings will take place on a regular weekly basis.

Overnight/On-call Duty: The conference team shares overnight/on-call duty responsibilities, and everyone must rotate availability. DCAs must be available for on-call duty. This involves responding to after-hours check-ins, guest concerns, and emergencies.

Vacation: Please be aware that this position does not offer any paid time-off or vacation benefits. Any needed days off throughout the summer must be arranged by "trading" shifts with fellow staff members and approved by the Conference Coordinator. No more than 3 consecutive days off will be approved.

Other: Throughout the summer, all areas of University Housing Services must work to support one another. This may include other duties as assigned by the management staff.

Minimum requirements for this position: Availability to attend all training dates (see previous page), and work a flexible work week schedule (averaging 40 hours per week) beginning Saturday, May 26, 2018 through Wednesday, August 15, 2018. Please be aware that the DCA Housing Assignment ends on August 12, 2018. At that date, DCAs must move to either their Fall 2018 Housing assignment or to their off-campus location. Must be available to work nights and weekends. Must be in good conduct standing. Good conduct standing is determined by the number of previous incidents or pending incidents, severity of charges, and status of findings and sanctions. Release from appointment may be required for students who do not maintain this standing. No candidate or returning CA can have an open conduct file during the interview and/or appointment period. Must possess capability to work in 3-story residence halls, which have no elevators, and be physically able to assist in coordinating emergency evacuation procedures as required. Must be able to carry objects weighing between 22-40lbs, such as linen and refrigerators. Must possess a team-oriented philosophy, positive attitude, and high energy for customer interactions. Strong communication and administrative skills are needed. This position requires the ability to establish and maintain cooperative working relationships within a diverse multicultural environment. Must have a minimum GPA of 2.0.

The following qualifications are also preferred: Previous work experience in hospitality or customer services. Major in Hospitality Management, Business, Recreation and Leisure Studies, Behavioral Sciences, or Communication Studies.

Remuneration:

- May 26 through August 13: Double room as single residence as in-kind payment for services rendered, including on-call duty.
- $4,000 in paychecks for training and the employment period.
- June 1 through August 10: Meal plan/week, ONLY when Dining Commons is open.
- Basic on-campus internet and basic cable.
- Total remuneration approximate value: $10,000

SAN JOSÉ STATE UNIVERSITY HOUSING SERVICES CONFERENCE SERVICES SUMMER 2018

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Can I take summer school classes or work on summer research projects?

Summer school classes or work on summer research projects can only be done with approval by the Conference Coordinator and will only be approved after all summer work shifts are filled. Your class schedule must fit around the conference work schedule.

2. Can I have outside employment while employed as a Conference Assistant?

All outside employment must be approved by the Conference Coordinator. All other jobs must accommodate your shifts and all commitments that are part of the Conference Assistant position.

3. Is housing provided?

Yes, it is. You will have your own bedroom. The rooms are single occupancy rooms.

4. Will I have a meal plan?

Yes!! As part of your compensation package, you will be given a meal plan to be used when the Dining Commons is open. This is only valid when the Dining Commons is open. Meals are not provided at other times, except during training.

5. Will I be able to take a vacation?

Sorry, but no---given the workload distribution and the short time span of the job, there is no "vacation time." You will have days off each week, but they may vary depending on your schedule and what shifts you sign up for.

6. What will my hours be?

You will work an average of 40 hours per week based on shifts you sign up for. Your work is not purely shift/hourly based, as you are expected to work until the work gets completed. Shifts are scheduled 7 days per week, from 7:00 am - 10:00 pm each day. There will be some rotating shifts and on-call duty nights. Nights and weekends are required.

7. Can I work for part of the summer?

No, you must be available to work from May 26, 2018 through August 15, 2018. Occasionally exceptions are made for a few days. If you have questions, please contact the Conference Office.

8. Do I have to wear a uniform?

Each Conference Services employee will receive shirts. You will be required to wear the polo shirt and tan khaki's when working the desk or check-in, and the t-shirt if/when working with the prep crew. You can wear jeans, black or tan khaki's, pants or shorts with the shirts, as long as they look appropriate. Closed toe shoes are required as well.

9. Do I have to work outside?

Yes, there will be some outdoor work required, though most of the work is inside the residence halls (but it is summer in San Jose and it's still hot!). You will be required to transport linen and equipment between residence halls, which means working outside.

10. Is training mandatory?

Yes, staff training is critical to a successful summer. There will also be mandatory training sessions during the spring semester.

11. Do I need to have conference experience?

No previous experience is required, but you do need to have a positive, enthusiastic attitude and the willingness to learn. We are looking for ambitious students who like to work in a team atmosphere and are able to provide quality customer service.

12. Can I be a Fall 2018 RA and a Summer 2018 CA?

No, due to the overlap in training for the RA position and the end of the CA job, this is not possible.

13. What is the "Good Standing" candidates must have/maintain?

Good Academic Standing – minimum 2.0 GPA (cumulative)

Good Conduct Standing – CA candidates cannot be on probation from SJSU Student Conduct or UHS at the time of application (March 5th).

If you are on probation through that date, you are ineligible to apply for the CA position for Summer 2018
