

University Housing Services Faculty-In-Residence (FIR) 2022-2023 Academic Year

JOB DESCRIPTION

Time base: 10 hours minimum per week
Department: University Housing Services
Reports to: Assistant Director for Academic Initiatives and Living Learning Communities

This is a part-time position approximately 10 hours per week during the year, from August 1, 2022 to the end of May 2023 with an option to continue living on campus until the end of June 2023. This position will be in addition to the successful candidate's faculty unit employee appointment. Applicants must have concurrent employment at San José State University as a tenured, tenure-track faculty unit employee, temporary faculty unit employee or lecturer (on a one year or more contract) to be considered.

The Faculty-in-Residence, who reside in on-campus provided housing, sponsors and participates in Residential Curriculum programs, encourages intellectual stimulation and academic involvement, and provides mentoring for student residents. Working under the general direction of the Director of Residence Life and the Assistant Director of Academic Initiatives and Living Learning Communities, the Faculty-in-Residence will work closely with the Coordinator for Academic Success, the professional and paraprofessional staff and residential student government groups in developing a sense of community, fostering involvement in social and educational hall and campus programs and activities, and meeting the academic and community needs of resident students.

Theme Communities: The following six Theme Communities are located in Joe West Hall:

- Arts Village
- Black Scholars Community
- Business Innovation and Leadership Development (BUILD)
- Community for Engineering Living and Learning (CELL)
- Sustainable Spartans
- Rainbow Village

Students have the option to select a preferred Theme Community that fits their academic goals or identities/interests on their housing application. Faculty-in-Residence, student staff (Resident Assistants, Peer Academic Success Coaches), and student leaders (Residence Hall Association, Hall Governments) work collaboratively to provide events and activities that support the learning goals of these communities.

Please, note that our programs may be offered in hybrid modality in 2022-2023.

Duties and Responsibilities (to include, but not limited to, the following):

➤ Social Engagement

- Welcome students and families by participating in the opening of housing facilities and Welcome Week activities.
- Maintain a high level of visibility and accessibility to students in the assigned residential community.
- Engage in appropriate, formal and informal social interactions with residents in the residential community, including attending residential programs.
- Attend monthly residential community meetings.
- Share meals during the week/weekend with residents in the Dining Commons.
- Participate in the University Housing Services component of Admitted Spartan Day held in April (Virtual event over several days in 2021).

➤ Academic Initiatives

- Plan, implement, and participate in monthly academically focused programs in the residential community such as academic support sessions, workshops, field trips, discussion groups, guest speakers, movie nights and informal seminars.
- Provide academic support and guidance to the residential community, along with the Peer Advisors, through tutoring and one-on-one interactions with students.
- Serve on any Communities Advisory Councils composed of faculty, staff, students, and community members, if they are assigned in that community.
- Engage in formal and informal academic interactions with residents in the residential community.
- Support the Academic Initiatives signature events for the residential community (Pre-registration Academic Advising in the fall, Aim for Pi in the spring, Academic themed events).
- Collaborate with Academic Initiatives staff for academic related workshops at the Spartan Hub (Study and Tutoring space).
- Contribute to the Faculty-in-Residence Symposium at the end of the academic year (May 2023) that showcases their work and achievements in the residential community.

➤ Educational Development

- Promote a welcoming culture within the residential community that values and celebrates diversity and inclusiveness.
- Promote and support department and campus wide social justice programs and initiatives that will encourage the development of the residential community.
- Attend educational programs, workshops, and events of residential staff and student government groups and encourage student participation in such programs.
- Support and promote the Educational Priority and Learning Goals of the Residential Curriculum through Faculty-in-Residence activities.

➤ Department/University Involvement

- Attend Faculty-in-Residence Training in the month of August.
- Attend annual August and January Student Leader trainings.
- Attend regular meetings with the Residential Life staff (Residential Life Coordinators and Resident Advisors, Wednesdays 7pm-10pm) and Hall Government meetings of the corresponding community.
- Attend monthly meetings with the Faculty-in-Residence team (Friday, 3:00-4:00 pm).
- Attend 1:1 meetings with the Academic Initiatives staff.

- Work collaboratively with the Peer Academic Success Coaches (PASCs) and the Academic Initiatives Project Coordinators (AI student staff).
- Arrange for availability during the week for community time with residents (in-person or online).
- Assist with academic initiatives to promote student success.
- Become knowledgeable of student resources on campus.
- Serve as a role model and support university and residential community policies.
- Assist staff during emergencies, if willing and able.
- Report housing or university policy violations to staff members.
- Submit a proposed FIR program plan/activity schedule for each semester.
- Submit end of the semester and end of the year reports.
- Participate in ongoing program evaluation, assessment of academic initiatives, and provide feedback on their experience in the Faculty-in-Residence program.
- Support the Academic mission and values of the university, the Division of Student Affairs, and the University Housing Services.
