

Public Health & Recreation
PH/RECL180: Individual Studies Request Form

Course Description: Individual work investigating special topics/problems through research, applied projects, and/or field experiences. Assessment by project(s), tasks, and/or written document(s). Prerequisite: Upper division standing, supervising instructor approval, and department chair consent. Repeatable for credit. Grading: CR/NC. Units: 1-4.

Name	Phone
Student ID	Email
Major	Expected Graduation Date

Indicate the type of 180 and the number of units requested.

Student Leader for Course Credit. Undergraduate students who request or are appointed to support faculty in a variety of activities to deliver education and/or conduct projects/research for course credit.

Units

General 180 Student. Undergraduate students who request and are appointed to support faculty in projects and/or research related activities for course credit.

Units

Description of Applied Learning Activities: Describe the activity requirements for successful completion of the course (e.g. data collection, data handling, and data analysis; offering peer advising hours and events; managing department social media accounts and messages. Student leaders in the classroom may perform duties such as facilitating small groups in class and supporting students in assignment development.)

Method of Evaluation: Describe how successful completion will be determined.

Date for completion

Student Signature	Date	Supervising Faculty Signature	Date
Program Coordinator Signature	Date	HSR Chair's Signature	Date