

HOW TO RETURN TO SJSU AFTER ACADEMIC DISQUALIFICATION

IF YOU ARE OUT OF THE U.S. UPON DISQUALIFICATION, YOU SHOULD NOT TRY TO USE YOUR FORM I-20 TO RETURN TO THE U.S.

YOUR SEVIS RECORD WILL BE TERMINATED BY ISSS THE FIRST DAY OF THE UPCOMING SPRING OR FALL SEMESTER IF YOU DO NOT TRANSFER YOUR I-20. PLEASE #TALKTOUS BEFORE USING YOUR FORM I-20 TO TRAVEL ABROAD OR APPLY FOR BENEFITS IN THE U.S.

In order to return to SJSU to continue your studies after you have been academically disqualified, you need to choose one of the following paths:

*If you choose the Semester at SJSU path, you will need to fulfill a 1-year residency requirement to be eligible for practical training (e.g., CPT and OPT) upon readmission. This means that you will have to be enrolled full-time for one academic year after getting reinstated and readmitted to SJSU to be eligible for CPT and OPT. Students who choose path # 1 will need to be enrolled for one semester as an F-1 student to be eligible for practical training after they are reinstated/readmitted.
