The following materials and information must be included in your application packet:

- I. Please attach copies of all transcripts (SJSU and any other schools) used to compute the GPAs shown in Section II.
- II. For the Brewer, Claspill, Fontana, Hubbell, Lomio, Edel, and Simpson & Silva scholarships, you must write a separate and unique personal statement for each. Your statement should be 300-500 words and speak to the specific requirements of that scholarship as described in the Justice Studies Department Scholarship Application Instructions. In addition to the specific requirements of each essay, you should include the following:
  - (1) What are your career goals? Describe what experience(s) motivated you to pursue a justice-related career.
  - (2) Identify and describe any volunteer work, internship, or other work experience in the criminal or juvenile justice field.
  - (3) How scholarship will contribute to your academic success and professional goals.
- III. For the Hoover and Schmidt scholarships you must submit either a 500–700-word essay or a 3–5-minute video in which you respond to the scholarship requirements.
- IV. For the Paula Stone Hubbell Scholarship, submit a letter of recommendation from at least one faculty member in the Justice Studies Department or a professional in the justice field. Put their contact information below.

Name of Recommender: _____

Phone Number: _____ Email: _____

- V. Attach to this checklist an original, recent, graded, individual research paper or project with grade and comments from your instructor. Include a cover sheet which indicates the date your paper was written, the course title, and the instructor.

If I accept a scholarship(s), I agree to:

1. Release of information about me to third parties to promote the scholarship award(s).
2. As a condition of receiving the honor of funding, I will:
  - Write a “Thank you” letter to the stakeholders (family, contributors, etc.) that may be shared with others.
  - Provide a portrait of myself for promotional purposes, not limited to web pages and public events.
  - Prepare a brief statement of gratitude, career goals, and ways that the scholarship will promote my career goals to be used for promotional purposes, not limited to web pages and public events.
3. Pay it forward by donating to a scholarship or other department initiative when I am financially able.
