

UNITE HERE! LOCAL 2

WWW.UNITEHERE2.ORG

UNITE HERE! represents workers throughout the U.S. and Canada who work in the hospitality, gaming, food service, manufacturing, textile, laundry, and airport industries.

With over 250,000 members in our International Union, we are at the forefront of the battle for workers rights, immigration reform and living wages. In San Francisco and across the United States and Canada, our members in the hospitality industry are standing in solidarity to defend their standards against abusive hotel corporations. Together with our brothers and sisters in non-union hotels, we are leading the fight for dignity, respect and a voice on the job.

Our organizing campaigns embrace many strategies, including comprehensive boycott campaigns. In the spirit of Cesar Chavez and the historic farm worker grape boycotts, our active hotel boycott campaigns are designed to help us win and have become a critical component of our strategy.

We are seeking to grow our team of passionate and committed intern-boycott organizers. Interns will work in teams with union members, community activists and union staff to develop sophisticated hotel boycott campaigns. These campaigns are designed to move business out of boycotted hotels and involve creative outreach strategies, research and street actions.

Qualifications:

- Minimum commitment, 10 hours per week.
- Passion for low-wage and other worker struggles.
- Personal confidence and ability to deal with conflict.
- Ability to work well with others in a diverse team environment.
- Fluency in English speaking and writing.
- Basic computer skills (internet search tools, databases, Word and Excel).

Activities include (but are not limited to):

- Researching hotel corporations and their clients.
- Team based development and execution of creative strategies designed to divert and move business out of boycotted hotels.
- Building relationships with other community, labor and political allies to help support boycott campaigns.
- Development and execution of rallies, protests, street actions and leaflets.

How to apply:

Call or email to schedule interview:

Mark Westerberg

organize@unitehere2.org

415-864-8770 x748