

Department of Justice Studies
1290R Expectation

Graduate students with an RP grade in 6 units of the thesis (JS 299) or 3 units of the project (JS 297) course are expected to enroll in the 1-unit course JS 1290R, in each semester until degree completion for the purpose of continuous enrollment.

Graduate students who have completed all degree program requirements except the culminating experience are expected to enroll in the 1-unit JS 1290R for the purpose of continuing enrollment. Students of whom all of the following are true are subject to the policy:

- Graduate student
- RP issued in Spring 2012 or thereafter for thesis or project course
- Enrollment in no other courses
- Completion of all degree requirements other than thesis or project,

Note: Appointments for the JS 1290 R require a filed graduation date set in the current or future semester