AJ 16 CRIMINAL EVIDENCE & PROCEDURES

COURSE DESCRIPTION

A through study of the rules of evidence with specific emphasis on the application of These rules in preparing reports and presenting evidence in the criminal justice system. This will include a history and development of evidentiary rules, both Federal and State, including substitutes and general admissibility tests. Study of testimonial, documentary, real (physical) evidence and exclusion of evidence based on Constitutional requirements.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

At the time of the final students should be able to:

1. Trace the historical development of the rules of evidence from English common law present
2. Analyze philosophical and constitutional aspects of evidence law in the context of the criminal justice system
3. Describe the legislative and judicial decisions which interpret and modify the rules of evidence
4. Identify direct, indirect, demonstrative, and physical evidence
5. Identify Constitutional and case law guidelines in Fourth Amendment/Search and Seizure law
6. Understand how witness testimony may be used as evidence, including confessions, and hearsay
7. Analyze how the Exclusionary Rule is applicable in police searches and seizures
8. Gain a realistic understanding of the use of evidence through Court observations

TEXTS

Thomas Gardner (2001), Criminal Evidence, Principles and Cases, West Publishing, Minn.MN.

Barry Scheck (2000), Actual Innocence, Doubleday Random House, New York. (paperback)

CLASS REQUIREMENTS

Three exams will be required; two midterms and a final exam. The exams will be multiple choice based on the Gardner text and short essay based on Actual Innocence text. Additionally, students are required to pick three topics of their interest, and summarize four articles on this topic. The infotrac subscription that comes with the Gardner text may be used to download the articles from the internet. The summary must include the articles, and be at least 2 pages, double spaced, 10-12 font. A topic summary is due with each exam. The instructor will be highlighting suitable topics throughout the course, and students must have their choices approved. Each exam must be taken to pass the course, and missed exams must be made up during finals week.

EVALUATION

Midterm #1	25%
Midterm #2	25%
Midterm #3	25%
Topic summaries	25%

Students may also do oral presentations on their topics and court observations for extra credit.

Exams will receive a letter grade and a point distribution will illustrate class standing. Each exam is noncumulative.
