JS 14
CRIMINAL LAW

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Historical development of philosophy of law and constitutional provisions, legal definitions, classifications of crime, case law, methodology and concepts of criminal law as a social force.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

AT THE TIME OF THE FINAL EXAM STUDENTS SHOULD BE ABLE TO:

1. Articulate the nature and limits of criminal law in the United States.
2. Understand Constitutional limitations on criminal law such as the void-for-vagueness And Equal Protections doctrines.
3. Understand the mens rea and actus rea principles.
4. Apply principles of causation, concurrence and vicarious liability to fact situations.
6. Master definitions of crimes against persons and property as well as defenses to those offenses.
7. Brief cases from the text book in a format that identifies the facts, the legal issue presented to the Court, and the Court's findings.

REQUIRED TEXTS

Samaha, Joel(2006), Criminal Law. Thomson Wadsworth, 8th edition.

Kessler, Raymond(2006) Study Guide for Samaha's Criminal Law 8th edition. Thomson Wadsworth.

CLASS REQUIREMENTS

Three exams will be required: two midterms and a final exam administered during finals week. The exams will be a combination of true/false, multiple choice and short essay. Students should utilize the study guide in preparation for the exams and attend class for notes and reviews. In addition, students will be assigned cases to brief and present in class. Exams that are missed may be made up during finals week, if there is proper documentation. Students who are absent when brief presentations are due will receive a zero for that assignment. Study groups are encouraged and will be facilitated by the instructor if necessary.

EVALUATION

Each exam will be assigned a point value and a grade will be determined by a class generated curve. Each student will know their class standing at all times. There is no extra credit offered in this course, however, exceptional class participation may raise the student's grade in the course by ½ grade point (B to B+).

Midterm 1	25%	100 pts
Midterm 2	25%	100 pts
Final	25%	100 pts
Case briefs	25%	100 pts

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students who need accommodation due to a disability must register with SJSU's Disability Resource Center. The Center will work with the student to determine the disability, document it, and determine the services and accommodations necessary for student success. The DRC will contact the instructor to determine the types of consideration necessary. Students must register with the Center during the first three weeks of the semester. The DRC Web Site: <http://www.drc.sjsu.edu/>.

CHEATING AND PLAGIARISM:

In accordance with University Policy, students caught cheating or plagiarizing will both fail the entire course and be reported to the University Judicial Affairs Officer. If you are considering a career in the Criminal Justice field, be aware that reports of cheating will go on your academic record and thus may be discovered by employer's background investigations of job candidates. For more information, take the SJSU Library Tutorial at <http://tutorials.sjlibrary.org/plagiarism/index.htm>.
