Introduction paper

Each student will complete a two page type written introduction paper providing a brief personal history, the reason(s) for taking this course including areas of the police/society relationship that most interest you and your future goals in the justice system. The introduction paper must be completed prior to any further assignments being accepted. Papers turned in after the due date will receive a score of zero, but are still required to be submitted.

Essay

Students will complete 1 research essay outside of class. Each paper will be 7-8 typewritten, double spaced pages with normal margins and fonts. Papers will address the below listed topic. Each paper must be turned in by the end of class on the due date. Papers will be graded on relevance, organization, completeness and reference notation. Each paper will include a minimum of three references, one being scholarly, in the APA format. Late papers will not be accepted except in the case of a verifiable medical emergency.

Essay Topic – An overview of any major violent crime or crime spree. The essay will provide a detailed account of the event(s), and its affect on the community, police, media and justice system in general. Topics must be approved in advanced by the instructor.

Individual Presentation

Each student will make one presentation providing an overview of the topic covered in their essay. A PowerPoint presentation on CD will be submitted along with a 10 minute oral presentation for the instructor and other students.

Exams

The Mid-term and Final exams will cover all material presented prior to the exam including chapter reading assignments, lectures, videos and information provided by guest speakers. Test reviews will provide a general overview of the material covered in the exam. Test will be a combination of multiple choice and true/false.

Course Structure

Lecture, student presentations, guest speakers, films
