Chosen topics will directly relate to key criminal justice issues. A set time frame will be in place for posting of comments and replies, students will only be able to post during said time frames. Full credit (i.e., points) for each posted topic will require at least (2) substantive posts, one original post and one reply to another student's post. See course schedule for topic posting dates, and check canvas. [CLO2]

Article Critique

The process of writing an article critique is designed to improve and test your ability to critically analyze research. Clearly, the better written an article is, the more likely it is to be accepted by the intended audience; however, research has varying degrees of quality. Article Critiques will increase your ability to read professional writing, recognize and understand valid research, and it will aid you in identifying weaknesses in research and writing. Learning to recognize flaws in grammar and logic will improve your ability to recognize those flaws in your own writing. The Article Critique(s) must be no more than 1,000 words (an additional handout will be provided) [CLO1-6]

Book Critique: May God have Mercy

Students will be required to write a book critique. The book critique must be no longer than 1,200 words, double-spaced, use Times New Roman 12-point font, and conform to APA style. [CLO1-6]

Topic and Thesis

Students will be required to write a paragraph describing their topic, and a clear thesis statement. The Topic and Thesis assignment must be double-spaced, use Times New Roman 12-point font, and conform to APA style. [CLO1 and 2]

Annotated Bibliography

Students will write an annotated bibliography for sources used in their research paper. The annotated bibliography must include at least six (6) sources and annotations. Students should summarize, assess and reflect upon each source cited. The annotated bibliography must be no longer than 1,000 words, single-spaced, use Times New Roman 12-point font, and conform to APA style (not including cover page and bibliography). [CLO4 and 5]

Paper Outline and Introduction

Students will be required to create a full paper outline, and write a paper introduction. The outline may be single-spaced, the introduction must be double-spaced, both must use Times New Roman 12-point font, and conform to APA style. [CLO1 and 2]

Literature Review

Students will be required to write a literature review based upon their chosen research paper topic. The literature review must be no longer than 1,000 words, double-spaced, Times New Roman 12-point font, and conform to APA style (not including cover page and references). [CLO1-6]

Rough Draft (Complete)

Students will be required to write a complete rough draft (i.e., complete paper). The rough draft must conform to the research paper requirements, inclusive of double-spacing, Times New Roman 12-point font, and conform to APA style. Students are expected to use the Originality Report generated to address any potential plagiarism issues. [CLO1-6]

Research Paper

Each student will write a research paper examining a specific topic area related to a criminal justice issue. Students will be allowed to choose from a predetermined list of acceptable general topics, and will then choose a more specific aspect upon which to focus. Students may also propose a topic, but it must be cleared by the instructor.

The purpose of this paper is not just to specifically test knowledge, but to also force critical thinking about an aspect of the chosen topic. This paper should be no more than 2,000 words (not including the cover page, outline, abstract, or references). No late papers will be accepted. A handout detailing the expectations, content, formatting, and submission requirements will be provided in a timely manner. [CLO1-6]
