Development of advanced communication skills, both written and oral. Emphasis on writing formats used by criminal justice professionals. A scholarly paper, written in APA format and informed by research, will be required.

Department of Justice Studies Reading and Writing Philosophy

The Department of Justice Studies is committed to scholarly excellence. Therefore, the Department promotes academic, critical, and creative engagement with language (i.e., reading and writing) throughout its curriculum. A sustained and intensive exploration of language prepares students to think critically and to act meaningfully in interrelated areas of their lives—personal, professional, economic, social, political, ethical, and cultural. Graduates of the Department of Justice Studies leave San José State University prepared to enter a range of careers and for advanced study in a variety of fields; they are prepared to more effectively identify and ameliorate injustice in their personal, professional and civic lives. Indeed, the impact of literacy is evident not only within the span of a specific course, semester, or academic program, but also over the span of a lifetime.

This course must be passed with a C or better as an SJSU graduation requirement.

GE Learning Outcomes (GELO)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

GELO 1: produce discipline-specific written work that demonstrates upper-division proficiency in: 1) language use, 2) grammar, and 3) clarity of expression;

GELO 2: explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse;

GELO 3: organize and develop essays and documents for both professional and general audiences;

GELO 4: organize and develop essays and documents according to appropriate editorial and citation standards; and

GELO 5: locate, organize, and synthesize information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose, and to communicate that purpose in writing.

Course Goals and Learning Outcomes

Course Goals

JS 100W has an intensive focus on writing, and it demands multiple drafts of work.

Through drafts (iterations) of the same work, JS100W students will develop the following:

1. A clear concise, effective writing style, exhibiting the mastery of the mechanics of writing
2. Proficiency in research strategies and methodologies necessary to communicate complex ideas effectively and appropriately to both general and specific audiences
3. The ability to read, interpret, and critically analyze scholarly literature within the field, and to respond critically both orally and in writing
4. The ability to gather diverse supporting evidence from a variety of sources and appropriately cite these sources using APA-style formatting
5. The ability to effectively express a position, using organized, clear, and concise wording in a variety of formats to target different audiences

Course Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CLO1 Students shall be able to refine the competencies established in Written Communication 1A and 1B as summarized below. Satisfaction of this objective will be measured through the evaluation of outlining exercises, a research paper draft, and a research paper final draft.

1A Student learning:

1. Students should be able to effectively perform the essential steps in the writing process (pre-writing, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).
2. Students should be able to express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively.
3. Students should be able to use correct grammar (syntax, mechanics, and citation of sources) at a college level of sophistication.
4. Students should be able to write for different audiences (both specialized and general).

1B Student learning:

1. Students should be able to use (locate, analyze, and evaluate) supporting materials, including independent library research.
2. Students should be able to synthesize ideas encountered in multiple readings

3. Students should be able to construct effective arguments

CLO2 Students shall be able to express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse. Satisfaction of this objective will be measured through the evaluation of article critiques of scholarly research, a critique of student work, and an oral presentation.

CLO3 Students shall be able to organize and develop essays and documents for both professional and general audiences, including appropriate editorial standards for citing primary and secondary sources. Satisfaction of this objective will be measured through the evaluation periodic diagnostics (in-class written examinations) and various organizational exercises, both in and outside of class.

Required Texts/Readings

Textbooks

APA (2009) Publication manual of the American Psychological Association. 6th edition.

Library Liaison

Silke Higgins, silke.higgins@sjsu.edu, (408) 808-2118, <http://libguides.sjsu.edu/justicestudies> Students are strongly encouraged to contact their library liaison for individual help with their research.

Course Requirements and Assignments

Scholarly and professional articles and reports will be provided in class from time to time. Students must bring paper to each class.

In addition to the requirement that students actively participate in every class, there are 4 major components of assignments in this course:

- Major research paper outline and argument ('many iterations paper' beginnings) (20%, aligned with CLO 1, CLO 3; GELO 1, GELO 2, GELO 3)
- Major research paper outline presentation (10%, aligned with CLO 2; GELO 2, GELO 5)
- Major research paper research and design (20% aligned with CLO 2, CLO 3; GELO 4, GELO 5)
- Major research paper reflections and final presentation (10%, aligned with CLO 2; GELO 2, GELO 5)
- Major research paper Final (40%, aligned with CLO 1, CLO 2, CLO 3; GELO 1, GELO 2, GELO 3, GELO, 4, GELO 5)

Details for each assignment will be discussed in class extensively and posted on Canvas. Due dates are listed in the course schedule and subject to change with fair notice.

Grading Information

We will discuss grading in class prior to every assignment. Students are encouraged to ask questions to ensure they understand expectations. Rubrics will be provided on Canvas or in class for every assignment.

Determination of Grades

Grades will be used along with substantive feedback to indicate students' performance in a variety of tasks. Exams and final grades will be calculated as a percentage on a typical "100 point scale." Missing, late, or plagiarized work will be given a grade of zero. Contact the professor early if you are having difficulty completing assignments or need accommodations for disabilities or absences for religious holidays.

The final course grade will be calculated based on the following standard scale:

98-100 A+
94-97 A
90-93 A-
88-89 B+
84-87 B
80-83 B-
78-79 C+
74-77 C
70-73 C-
68-69 D+
64-67 D
60-63 D-
<60 F

Please note, a "C" or higher is required to receive credit for this course toward a Justice Studies or Forensic Science Major. Passage of the Writing Skills Test (WST) or ENGL/LLD 100A with a C or better (C- not accepted), and completion of Core General Education are prerequisite to all SJSU Studies courses. Completion of, or co-registration in, 100W is strongly recommended. A minimum aggregate GPA of 2.0 in GE Areas R, S, & V shall be required of all students.

Classroom Protocol

Students are expected to attend all classes and to participate in all discussions, debates and activities in a respectful and mindful manner. Specifically:

1. Students are expected to deposit/submit assignments and discussion posts to our online class on time, prepared to take part in their own and collective learning.
2. All classroom participants are expected to foster an environment that encourages participation, and that is respectful to others and their opinions.
3. Students are expected to complete graded assignments by the time indicated in this syllabus. Late assignments will not be graded.
4. Students are responsible for making up material missed in their absence on their own.

While an emergency personal or health related situation appropriately verified (for instance, a doctor's certificate in the case of illness), will be grounds for a student making up missed work or assignments without penalty, in no other circumstances will making up missed tasks be allowed. With regard to any unavoidable missed classes, it is incumbent upon students themselves to 'catch up' in terms of content and materials.

University Policies

Per University Policy S16-9, university-wide policy information relevant to all courses, such as academic integrity, accommodations, etc. will be available on Office of Graduate and Undergraduate Programs' Syllabus Information web page at <http://www.sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo/>
