Justice Studies Department Reading and Writing Philosophy.

The Department of Justice Studies is committed to scholarly excellence. Therefore, the Department promotes academic, critical, and creative engagement with language (i.e., reading and writing) throughout its curriculum. A sustained and intensive exploration of language prepares students to think critically and to act meaningfully in interrelated areas of their lives—personal, professional, economic, social, political, ethical, and cultural. Graduates of the Department of Justice Studies leave San José State University prepared to enter a range of careers and for advanced study in a variety of fields; they are prepared to more effectively identify and ameliorate injustice in their personal, professional and civic lives. Indeed, the impact of literacy is evident not only within the span of a specific course, semester, or academic program but also over the span of a lifetime.

Catalog Description

The course examines the theory, research, and practical skill development in communication and problem assessment strategies using techniques of crisis intervention, mediation and restorative justice. Topics include definitions of crisis, multi-culturally effective intervention, climate of human growth, law enforcement and crisis, crisis/hostage negotiation, human service workers in crisis, and debriefing. These issues are viewed from a Justice Studies perspective, but integrate a range of perspectives including community policing, family court, dependency court and juvenile justice settings, and institutions with a focus on Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) methods.

Prerequisite: Passage of the Writing Skills Test (WST) or ENGL/LLD 100A with a C or better (C- not accepted), completion of Core General Education and upper division standing are prerequisites to all SJSU studies courses. Completion of, or co-registration in, 100W is strongly recommended.

Note: Must achieve a grade of "C" or better to fulfill Justice Studies major requirements.

More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf>

Submission of Assignments to Canvas™

Students are required to submit all documents to Canvas. It is your responsibility to submit documents to Canvas that are in common formats so that the documents can be opened and processed by Canvas. Failure to submit documents in an acceptable format may result in a zero for that assignment. Students will be sent a message if the document cannot be opened or processed. If this continues to be a problem, students may receive a zero without further notice for assignments submitted in formats that cannot be opened and processed.

Embedded in Canvas is Turnitin.com, which generates an originality report. Each originality report is reviewed to evaluate for plagiarism. Documents that cannot be processed through turnitin.com cannot be graded. Documents that cannot be fully processed may result in a zero for that assignment.

Grading Policy

The class assignments will have a point total that will be included in the instructions for the activity or assignment, including due dates and late policies. Some assignments, such as discussions and quizzes, will close at the deadline with no option for late submissions. Students failing to complete their assignments by these deadlines will receive a zero for that time.

Students are evaluated based on Papers, Exams, and Participation. Point totals can be tracked in the grades tab in Canvas™. The letter grades described below will be assigned based on the percent of the total points.

Papers (35%)

Papers make up 35% of the student's grade. Two written assignments are required during the semester. Each assignment involves library research analysis of assigned topic, integration of information covered in the course culminating in a well-written six to eight (6-8) page paper.

All papers must be submitted to Canvas™ in the designated folder on or before the due date. Please note the due date. Late papers will be docked 4 points for the first day late and 1 point for each day after (including weekends and holidays). Papers more than two weeks late will not be accepted without prior approval. Each paper will be weighted equally. Papers are graded on a rubric (provided).

Both papers require literature review (i.e. library research) and proper APA format and citation. Students are expected to be able to write at an upper division level. Students are strongly encouraged to use the writing centers and resources on campus if they feel that their writing ability and/or understanding of APA style may impact their performance on these papers. Appointments should be made in advance to allow enough time to make recommended changes prior to the due dates. A link to Purdue OWL is provided in “Course Support Materials,” in the Modules tab. This link provides information about formatting, citations and referencing.

Two writing assignments require students to demonstrate their understanding of the course content learning outcomes (CLO’S) 1-5. Other experiences that develop mastery of the outcomes include small group discussions, exercises analyzing case vignettes, documentary film reviews, class discussions, and an observation in either a suicide/crisis facility, homeless shelter, the Bill Wilson Center, Homefirst, or the Veteran's Center.

ASSIGNMENT No. 1: Crisis Intervention (CI)

Full assignment and grading rubric will be provided for both assignments in class .

Students will read the book (1998) A Beautiful Mind, The Life of Mathematical Genius and Nobel Laureate John Nash (364 pgs) ISBN: 9781451628425 Available at Target and/or Amazon

ASSIGNMENT No. 2: Direct Observation Activity (DOA)

The second paper requires researching a special topic and acquainting yourself with an agency directly involved in crisis intervention, restorative justice, or crisis negotiation. Assignment details to be given in class.

Examinations (35%)

Quizzes

Three quizzes will be given in class and must be completed by the designated due date. Students are encouraged to take all quizzes as a way to stay current with course material throughout the course and receive feedback on comprehension of key concepts. Please plan and prepare to have a green Scantron Form No # 815-E for each quiz. See the course schedule for quiz dates.

Final Exam

A cumulative final exam will be given on the assigned final exam day. The exam will be cumulative and will cover content from assigned readings and lecture material. A study guide will be provided to all students in class prior to the Final. The cumulative score of the quizzes and the final will make up 35% of the student’s grade.

Participation (30%)

- 1. Written Responses: Written Responses will be kept in a student folder presented to the instructor. The Written Responses will be used to facilitate integration of concepts presented in class. This forum encourages students to personally explore the material and promotes active learning. The Written Responses request personal reflection on the material and will be handled respectfully and confidentially. Grades are based on the student's thoughtfulness and scholarly integration of course concepts. In strong responses, students make connections between course material and their evolving critical discourse on the topic. Responses are noted as class activities in the course schedule below.
- 2. In-class exercises: Graded exercises will be used to facilitate student dialogue, an important process for learning and the integration of complex social issues. Please pay close attention to deadlines included in the syllabus. This is done to facilitate discussion among students. A class announcement will be made once class exercises are available. Students are responsible for all instructions.

Grades are calculated based upon the scale below:

98.0 - 100% = A+	78.0 - 79.9% = C+
93.0 - 97.9% = A	73.0 - 77.9% = C
90.0 - 92.9% = A-	70.0 - 72.9% = C-
88.0 - 89.9% = B+	68.0 - 69.9% = D+
83.0 - 87.9% = B	63.0 - 67.9% = D
80.0 - 82.9% = B-	60.0 - 62.9% = D-
	00.0 - 59.9% = F

NOTE : University policy F-15-12 (at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F-15-12.pdf>) states that, "Students are expected to attend all meetings for the courses in which they are enrolled as they are responsible for material discussed therein, and active participation is frequently essential to ensure maximum benefit to all class members. In some cases, attendance is fundamental to course objectives; for example, students may be required to interact with others in the class. Attendance is the responsibility of the students. Participation may be used as a criterion for grading when the parameters and their evaluation are clearly defined in the course syllabus and the percentage of the overall grade is stated."

Note that "All students have the right, within a reasonable time, to know their academic scores, to review their grade-dependent work, and to be provided with explanations for the determination of their course grades." See University Policy F13-1 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F13-1.pdf> for more details.

Classroom Protocol.

As a note of caution; the content of this course can raise sensitive issues. Given this, students should express and conduct themselves with the utmost respect and awareness of the potential impact on others based on statements made or views expressed. Conversely, students are encouraged to express their experience of disrespect, for the benefit of all, in a manner consistent with the same standards for awareness and respect. Perceived violations of this expectation will be first viewed as teachable opportunities communicated directly to the student or students concerned.

It is expected that students will keep up with the course and its deadlines by checking for updates, new material and due dates on a regular basis, and by completing lectures and activities each week.

Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by your enrollment at San José State University and the University's Academic Integrity Policy (Academic Senate Policy S07-2), require you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all alleged violations of the Academic Integrity Policy to Student Conduct and Ethical Development. Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person's ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a [insert Academic Sanction you choose from section 4.0] and administrative sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified.

Cell phones must be kept OFF OR ON SILENT upon entering and during class structure time. No cell phones are to be visible during class structure time.
