* NOTE: Graduate students enrolled in the course will have some different questions on the exams, and will be held to appropriate standards on all other work.

1. Article critique: (CLOs 2, 3, 4; PLO 1, 2). Each student will review, briefly summarize, and critique one scientific article on coaching science. Coaching science articles may be identified through searches conducted in online databases such as SportDiscus or PsychInfo. The article must be original research published between 2007 and 2017. Potential sources of coaching science articles include journals such as The Sport Psychologist, Journal of Sport & Exercise Psychology, Research Quarterly for Exercise and Sport, Applied Research in Coaching and Athletics Annual, Journal of Sport Behavior, & International Journal of Sports Science and Coaching. Articles MUST deal explicitly with the psychology of coaching, AND be primary research, including a methods section. In other words, no literature reviews, theoretical pieces, or anything else. Find an actual study. Critiques should include a brief, concise summary of the article, and an overview and engaged critique of the following sections: 1) Introduction 2) Literature Review, 3) Methodology, 4) Results, and 5) Discussion/Conclusion. Critiques should be no more than 2-4 double-spaced pages, 12-point font. Include: Title page, Abstract of the article, article citation (APA format) on the top of the first page of the introduction, the sections above summarized, and a reference page. More details on Canvas. (20% of overall grade, 100 points).

2. Coaching Interview/Reflection Paper: (CLOs 5, 8; PLO 1, 2). Each student will interview an experienced coach. The student will conduct a 30-45 min. interview via Skype, Zoom or G+. Audio must be recorded the audio and upload to Canvas with Reflection paper. Other relevant information from the course should also be applied, including a critique of the coach using various theories and concepts, as well as the incorporation of at least five (5) primary journal articles. For this assignment, students may work either individually. Papers should range from approximately 4-6 pages, and will be evaluated on the following criteria: 1) overall quality of analysis, 2) integration of relevant course material, 3) use of primary references, & 4) writing and organization. * More details on Canvas. (20% of overall grade; 100 points).

3&4. Exams: (CLOs 1-8; PLO 4). There will be a midterm exam covering the first half of the course and a final exam (given during finals) covering mainly the second half of the course, although students will be expected to incorporate knowledge learned previously. Exams will consist of multiple choice and T/F questions. (20% for each exam; 40% total of overall grade). Exams are schedule to be taken on 1-specific day with a window open from 12:01am – 11:59pm. More details on Canvas.

5. On-line Discussion Participation: (CLOs 1-8). Students will respond and engage others in instructor-promoted topics via Canvas. (10% of overall grade). Discussion are done online, are Related to readings and topics. There are 10 discussion post worth 10 points each (100 points). Posts are done weekly and are due by 11:59pm., the day before the start of the week. More details on Canvas.

6. Weekly Quizzes: (CLOs 1-8; PLO 3). There will be 10 weekly quizzes, worth 10 points each (100 points), based on the chapter readings for that week. Students have 25 mins to complete these open book quizzes, online quizzes. Locked browser on. (10% of overall grade). Quizzes are due by 11:59pm – the day before the start of the new week. More details on Canvas.

D. Online Class structure and participation: Class will be part lecture format and part seminar/discussion format online. This means that students should always keep up with the reading assignments, and make an effort to contribute to class whenever appropriate. You all have valuable knowledge and experiences, and the class will benefit from your diverse perspectives. When it is appropriate to do so, we will also begin class with informal discussions (using course materials) on current events related to coaching. To facilitate online class discussion, there will be postings each week related to content.

E. Other important notes:

- All materials submitted for this course must be original works of the student and typed with text and references in APA format.
- Assignments are due at the beginning of class on the assigned date. Late papers will be penalized one letter grade per day, without exception. Papers are to be used for this class only. If it is determined that a student used a paper from another course in this course, that student will receive no credit for the assignment, and be reported to student affairs.
- Only under extreme circumstances will an “incomplete” grade be assessed.
- Please inform the professor if you need course adaptations because of a disability, or if you need special arrangements in case the building needs to be evacuated.
- Students will turn their cell phones off or put them on vibrate mode while in class (or during live lectures). They will not answer their phones in online classes, nor will they text. Students whose phones disrupt the course and do not stop when requested by the instructor will be referred to the Judicial Affairs Officer of the University. Multiple infractions will result in removal from class and referral to the JAO. Students who disrupt the class in any other way, including talking when the instructor is talking, will also result in referral of the student to the JAO. Disruptions, in short, will not be tolerated for the sake of the quality of the learning environment.
- See online course etiquette policies on Canvas.

F. University, College, or Department Policy Information:

a) SJSU Academic Integrity Policy: The following information on academic integrity has been excerpted from the San José State University Academic Integrity Policy (policy S04-12). The complete policy is available at <http://www2.sjsu.edu/senate/S04-12.pdf>.

The University emphasizes responsible citizenship and an understanding of ethical choices inherent in human development. Academic honesty and fairness foster ethical standards for all those who depend upon the integrity of the university, its courses, and its degrees. This policy sets the standards for such integrity and shall be used to inform students, faculty and staff of the university's Academic Integrity Policy. The public is defrauded if faculty and/or students knowingly or unwittingly allow dishonest acts to be rewarded academically and the university's degrees are compromised. Further, instructors are now required to report infractions directly to the university.

b) Academic Honesty:

Faculty will make every reasonable effort to foster honest academic conduct in their courses. They will secure examinations and their answers so that students cannot have prior access to them and proctor examinations to prevent students from copying or exchanging information. They will be on the alert for plagiarism. Faculty will provide additional information, ideally on the green sheet, about other unacceptable procedures in class work and examinations. Students who are caught cheating will be reported to the Judicial Affairs Officer of the University, as prescribed by Academic Senate Policy S04-12.

c) Campus policy in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act:

“If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with The Disability Resource Center (924-6000), located in Adm 110) as soon as possible. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities register with DRC to establish a record of their disability.” Also, make an appointment to meet with the instructor of this course as soon as possible during one of the office hours provided on the syllabus.
