

Department of Kinesiology
Scholar Award for Undergraduate Students

The annual Department of Kinesiology Scholar Award honors students from each major curricular area within the department: Kinesiology, Physical Education Teacher Education, and Athletic Training. The Kinesiology Scholar Award recognizes students who have achieved a distinctive academic and leadership record. The award is intended to recognize and promote academic excellence, to further the professional competence and dedication of academically accomplished students and to promote kinesiology and its related fields.

Scholar Award Criteria:

- Senior status with a minimum overall GPA of 3.6
- Student graduating in the current academic year
- Demonstrates exceptional scholarly interest in the field of kinesiology

Nominations are due April 24, 2020 and must include:

- Completed nomination form;
- Resume (not to exceed two pages) including GPA and information related to scholarly interest/accomplishments, leadership, and service to the profession;
- A 250-300 word narrative describing the applicant's academic accomplishments and information related to award criteria (see below);
- Email digital photo of student (Preferably 400 x 600 pixel JPG) to Dr. Chin:
jessica.chin@sjsu.edu

The scholar award narrative should include evidence of the following:

- Commitment to high levels of academic accomplishment and leadership
- Engagement with professional and/or academic organizations
- Demonstration of academic excellence across the discipline