Hello everyone, and welcome to Spring 2021. We are excited to be holding menx’s group again this semester. For those of you who have never taken part in a menx's group meeting before, welcome! This is a place where those who identify as men can come together to share experiences, talk about current events, and to take a break from school. We want to give you all a safe space to be yourselves and to feel welcome. We look forward to building community and staying connected virtually during Covid-19 times.

"I personally enjoyed listening to others people share their interests, experiences in school or life because it make u realized you are not the only one dealing challenges and it is okay to do so. Because sometime, we can be in our own head dealing with challenges and overthinking it."
