

Join us!

My name is Dr. Gregory V. Wolcott and I have worked professionally in higher education for 20 years in the areas of student engagement, transition, retention, and new student programs. I currently hold the position of Associate Vice President for Student Transition and Retention Services at San José State University. In this role, I oversee several departments including the Educational Opportunity Program, African American/Black Student Success Center, Chicana/Latina Student Success Center, UndocuSpartan Student Resource Center, Asian Pacific Islander/Desi American Task Force, ASPIRE/McNair (TRIO) Programs, and New Student and Family Programs.

Tune in to the Spartan Hour to get live updates about SJSU and pose questions relating to your transition process, retention initiatives, and how we create a sense of belonging. Register in advance to attend Spartan Hour on one of the following dates to learn more.
