

Pre-course reading and writing assignment for Day 1 of class.

Please review Topic Outline 1 for context, then read and write up [word process] the Friendly Cab case according to the FIRACT format [see separate link on main course web page] to hand in at the end of class. Make sure to include your name.

A “FIRACT” is a bullet point document of 1-2 pages max that will serve as a discussion aid for you. It is an informal document whose primary purpose is to help you analyze and break down the principal elements of a case, but I also collect them on occasion for extra credit and will do so for this one on Day 1.

More about this will be discussed in class, but feel free to email me with any questions in the interim. I look forward to seeing you then.
