

PHIL 110, Sec. 03:
Science, Technology and Human Values

Dr. Étienne Brown
etienne.brown@sjsu.edu

Spring 2020

Tues.-Thurs.: 10:30am -11:45am, BBC 222

GE Area: V

Description: After studying two philosophical perspectives on the relationship between technology, equality and freedom – technological optimism and pessimism – we will discuss ethical issues raised by contemporary biotechnologies and the evolution of robots, whether they are meant to drive, kill or love.

Prerequisites: Passage of the Writing Skills Test (WST) or ENGL/LLD 100A with a C or better.