

Philosophy 111: Medical Ethics

Janet Giddings

Spring 2020

Tuesdays & Thursdays 9-10:15 a.m.

This course addresses selected global and local moral issues in medicine from philosophical, cultural, and religious contexts. We begin with explicating the Hippocratic Oath, and proceed considering various moral issues through cases from the U.S., Canada, East Asia, Japan, Nigeria, Egypt and more.

Texts:

Bioethics in a Cultural Context, by Vincent Barry.

The Hippocratic Oath and the Ethics of Medicine, by Steven Miles.