

Phil 292: Advanced Seminar in Ethics or Aesthetics
FEMINIST AND BUDDHIST ETHICS

Spring 2020

W: 6:00-8:45
Sweeney Hall 241
Prof. Brown

We will study Feminist and Buddhist Ethics as schools of thought that enriched the traditional canon of Western moral theory. We will pay special attention to understanding in what way Feminist and Buddhist Ethics are theories that are conducive to social reform, and we will also discuss the common denominators between them.

We will read selections from seminal works in Feminist Ethics, such as Caring, Nel Noddings, Feminist Moral Inquiry and Feminist Future, Virginia Held, and a mixture of primary and secondary sources in Buddhist philosophy.
