

PHIL 061 section 02,
“MORAL ISSUES”

“Moral philosophy covering major ethical theories and contemporary moral issues, such as abortion, euthanasia, animal rights, capital punishment, and sexuality.”

San Jose State University Course Description

Spring 2021

Tuesdays and Thursdays

7:30 – 8:45 AM

ONLINE

Professor John C. Wilhelmsson

john.wilhelmsson@sjsu.edu

We live in a world with many great moral issues yet how many of us have ever had a chance to stop and carefully consider them? “Moral Issues” gives you an opportunity to do this while advancing toward your SJSU degree.

- Ponder classical questions like: “How can I live the good and happy life?”
- Get a chance to read and know some of the great ethical thinkers of history.
- Learn how to analyze and evaluate the great moral questions of our day.
- Conduct your own meditation on ethics by writing the “Happiness Paper.”

Professor Wilhelmsson is highly rated with a 100% “would take again” mark. He strives to maintain an environment where people feel respected and ideas can be freely explored!

“Professor Wilhelmsson cares about his students, but most importantly he cares that his students have a free and open-minded environment to learn and explore ideas.”

Student Testimonial