

Apply for Summer Internships with the U.S. Congress in Washington DC

- The Political Science Department is announcing a call for applications for two $4,300 scholarships awarded to support summer Washington D.C. internships with U.S. House of Representatives members Zoe Lofgren (CA-19) and Ro Khanna (CA-17).
- Scholarships (for housing and travel) are awarded to political science majors only; graduating seniors may apply. Students may also earn up to 4 units of academic credit.

Applications for Rep. Zoe Lofgren and Rep. Ro Khanna's office are due Wednesday April 3rd, 2019 by 11:59pm. You can upload application materials to <https://goo.gl/forms/wrcADkQVZ32Vq35H2> **

Applications should include a résumé, an essay on why you want to intern with Congress, an unofficial transcript, a graded political science paper, and the names of two SJSU faculty members who could serve as references (letters are not required).

If you have trouble accessing the google form, documents can also be emailed to Shannon Gallagher at shannon.gallagher@sjsu.edu

For further information about either of these two scholarships contact the Political Science Internships Director, Professor Garrick Percival:
