

Master of Social Work

Apply

Request Information

Our two-year Master of Social Work (MSW) hybrid program offers online classes with an in-person internship component. Two years of continuous enrollment and completion of 60 units is required for this degree.

Enjoy the flexibility of the hybrid option that allows you to study from home while interning in-person at an agency local to your home in California. The two-year hybrid MSW program consists of two to four classes per session, including a strong internship component that runs concurrently in the Fall and Spring sessions. Students are expected to complete a minimum of 16 hours per week for internship.

The School of Social Work's mission at SJSU is a commitment to advocating for social justice and enhancing the well-being of individuals and communities.

Program Features

Transcultural perspective

Our transcultural perspective is infused in our curriculum. This diverse learning helps us be more self-aware, recognize power and privilege and work within our community as learners.

Empowering work opportunities

The MSW curriculum prepares you with specialized skill sets to work with minority groups and those in need.

CSWE accredited

Our MSW program has been accredited continuously by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) since 1973. This accreditation helps guide our program through core competencies.

School of Social Work ranking

SJSU is #5 in College Factual's 2023 list of best California Social Work schools.

"As a full-time employee, this program was very convenient and fitting to my schedule, and it allowed me to obtain my degree and still be a working adult."
