

Build your Minor in Interdisciplinary Studies
2023–2025 Topic:
"Developing Sustainable Societies"

Sign up for three required courses (9 units):

UNVS 120:
Conceptualizing Complex Problems
(3 units) Fall Semester

UNVS 121:
Steps in Real-World Problem Solving
(3 units) Spring Semester

UNVS 122:
HonorsX Seminar
(3 units) Can be taken at any time

Add any of these courses, take at any time (6 units):

Any GE or elective course related to sustainability

(3 units)

Any requirement for your major related to sustainability

(3 units)

UNVS 101:
Leadership and Career Accelerator

(3 units)

Internship, research, or practicum

(up to 6 units)

Independent study with Faculty

(3 units)

HonorsX
Seminar II

(3 units)

SJSU HONORS

Interested?
Email us at Honorsx@sjsu.edu

Mission

- Tackle complex social problems from diverse perspectives
- Collaborate in interdisciplinary teams
- Develop an equity-minded mindset
- Embrace values of creativity, entrepreneurship, community, ecology, equity, social and environmental justice, accessible healthcare, and technology
- Share your learning beyond the classroom

Is HonorsX for you?

- Contemporary curriculum
- Flexible courses co-taught by faculty team
- Intense mentorship
- Problem-based and experiential learning
- Community and corporate mentorship
- Multimedia storytelling
- Earn a Minor in Interdisciplinary Studies

Who can apply?

- Any junior who wants to opt into HonorsX
- Transfers especially welcome
- All majors invited
- No GPA requirements, no prerequisites
- Flexible schedule, can accommodate heavy courseloads

If you dream of tackling social problems in your communities and the world by collaborating with peers, faculty and mentors across disciplines — HonorsX is for you.

