Course Description
In this class you will practice and improve writing skills appropriate to the broad field of psychology, including essays, reports and scholarly communication. The goals of 100W are that students will develop advanced proficiency in college-level writing and appropriate contemporary research strategies and methodologies to communicate effectively to both specialized and general audiences. This class reinforces and advances skills developed in Written Communication 1A and 1B, and then broaden and deepen these to include mastery of the discourse peculiar to the discipline in which the course is taught.

Course Format

This course will follow a hybrid format using both a combination of lecture delivery and also accompanied by online delivery of instructional material which will entail reading the chapters from the prescribed text, reading supplemental material provided by your instructor, and viewing PowerPoint slides. By way of preparing you for online readiness, we will meet in person on most of the Mondays and Wednesdays, and on those days, each new topic to be covered will be introduced. For purposes of clarity, the course schedule gives a detailed information of the material that will be covered in person and material you are required to read online. Hence this course seeks to provide you with an exciting educational experience through varied techniques.
Evaluation and feedback will be provided through online means.

Faculty Web Page and MYSJSU Messaging

Course materials such as syllabus, handouts, notes, assignment instructions, etc. can be found on Students are responsible for regularly checking with the messaging system through MySJSU on Spartan App Portal http://one.sjsu.edu (or other communication system as indicated by the instructor) to learn of any updates. For help with using Canvas see Canvas Student Resources page (http://www.sjsu.edu/ecampus/teaching-tools/canvas/student_resources)

Course Canvas site

The course Canvas site is an online resource supplement for this course. Use of this site and the information provided is not a substitute for attending lectures. The site will be updated regularly throughout the semester. This site contains:

- Discussion Board (Course Announcements, student questions)
- Links to webpages that will be of use to you throughout the course
- Handouts and articles
- Lecture slides (generally posted after lecture is presented)
- Assignment submission
- Rubrics and feedback for major assignments
- Grade roster

My intention is that the site will become an additional forum, outside of class, in which we can debate, discuss, and raise questions about the course material. Check this site regularly for course announcements, articles, assignments, and other course materials. Weekly modules will be set up through Canvas and assignment requirements will be available within each week.

Course Requirements and Assignments
The assignments in Psychology 100W are designed to gradually build the writing and research skills necessary to write scholarly papers appropriate for the discipline of psychology.

An assignment summary table appears at the end of this syllabus. Details for each assignment are provided in lectures and in assignment information sheets. Assignment information sheets (as well as other useful resources) can be found on the course Canvas site.

The written assignments in Psychology 100W are designed to gradually build the writing and research skills necessary to write scholarly papers appropriate for the discipline of psychology. The major skills and associated assignments include (but are not limited to):

- Basic skills review (e.g., plagiarism tutorial, research skills tutorial, formatting tips in Microsoft Word)

- APA style

- Writing assignments (including, but not limited to)
  - Dissecting a Literature Review
  - Article Summaries and Evaluations*
  - Literature Review* (see description below)
    - Literature Review development (see description below)
Peer Reviews

Social Policy Research Report assignment (see description below)

* Students will be given the opportunity to revise in response to instructor feedback and resubmit

Mini-Literature Review

The major paper for this course is a literature review (see description below). To prepare you for this assignment you will write a “mini-literature review” (800 – 1000 words) that will help you to learn how to read, understand, and accurately report psychological research reports, develop synthesis skills by describing how studies build upon one another, and apply APA style.

Literature Review

The major paper you will be writing for this course is an APA style literature review (approximately 2000 - 2500 words including references; 10 or more scholarly references). The goal of a literature review is to answer a research question by describing and synthesizing relevant theory and research findings relevant to the question. You will be developing your final literature review in several assignments, including (but not limited to):

- Research Question Assignment in which you develop, with help from the instructor, a research question appropriate to the discipline of psychology and to the requirements of the course.

- Annotated References Assignment in which you identify at least 10 – 15 sources relevant to your literature review topic using databases and other resources appropriate to psychological research.

- Outline Assignment in which you organize the main points of your literature review and indicate which sources will be used to support the main point, and how it will do so (e.g., full summary of the article vs. “microsummary” of the article).

- Literature Review Conferences and Drafts in which you receive feedback from a variety of sources and revise your paper as needed. If first draft is not submitted on time, it will result in failure of the course.

Social Policy Research Report assignment

A second major paper you will be writing for this course is an APA style research report (approximately 1000 - 1500 words including references). The goal of a report is to describe the results of an empirical study.

IMPORTANT NOTES REGARDING ASSIGNMENTS
Assignments that do not meet minimum, or exceed maximum, word count will result in point deduction.

Papers are due before midnight on their respective date (see course schedule)

- Assignments turned in after the due date (and time) will not be considered. There are no exceptions. This policy is set up so that no one falls behind. To enforce this rule fairly, there can be no exceptions (except for extenuating circumstances of a catastrophic nature and even then, you must be extremely persuasive - - see below). So, turn in your assignments on time! I clearly note due dates on Canvas, syllabus, and will make in-class announcements well in advance. Take note of these dates and plan accordingly.

- No extensions or make-up exams will be given except in cases of reasonable and documented academic reasons, emergencies, serious illness, or similar seriously disruptive events. Communication is key! I understand “things happen,” and if such an incident should arise, I must have an email in my inbox at least 12 hours before the assignment is due. I will take your e-mail into consideration, and be ready to provide documentation.

The University Policy S16-9, Course Syllabi (http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S16-9.pdf) requires the following language to be included in the syllabus:

“Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.”

Final Examination or Evaluation

Thursday, December 10th from 12:15 – 2:30 pm

The final evaluation for this course is the oral presentation of students’ literature review. Due to time constraints, these presentations are scheduled over several class periods at the end of the semester – including during the time of the final exam.

“Faculty members are required to have a culminating activity for their courses, which can include a final examination, a final research paper or project, a final creative work or performance, a final portfolio of work, or other appropriate assignment.”

Grading Information

Course grades will be based on the number of points accumulated throughout the semester. The table on the next page summarizes the points and percentage of course grade associated with each course assignments.
Rubrics for all major assignments can be found on the course Canvas shell.

Final grades in this course will be assigned as indicated below.

Subject: PSYC 100W: Assignment due date question

Dear Mr. Ventura,

My name is Miranda Jackson and I am in your 100W class that meets T/Th 4:30-5:45. I am not sure when the Response Journal assignment is due because of conflicting information. The syllabus schedule says Nov. 5, but the assignment sheet itself says Nov 9. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Regards,

Miranda

Regular attendance is necessary to do well in the course.

Although the course has an online resource, this resource is not a substitute for attending lectures.

Please practice the following guidelines during our Zoom class meetings/discussions.

ZOOM CLASS MEETINGS/DISCUSSIONS

• Please do not talk when your instructor or other students are speaking. Please “mute” your microphone when your instructor is talking and/or when other students are asking questions.

• Students are ENCOURAGED (but not required) to turn on their video camera during Zoom class meetings. Turning on your video camera allows your instructor and classmates to see you and helps to simulate more of an “in-person” experience. BUT, again, you are NOT REQUIRED to turn on your video camera during these meetings if you choose not to or feel uncomfortable about doing so.

• Please be respectful of other people’s experiences, comments, thoughts, opinions, etc. even if you might not agree with what they are saying.

• I hope these class discussions can be a “safe” place where all students feel comfortable to share their own thoughts, experiences, and beliefs without being “judged” by others.

• As educated adults, we should be able to engage in thoughtful debate and discussion with one another without any fear of personal attacks/judgments from others.

I expect you to come to class prepared

“Prepared” means you have completed the readings and any assignment before class starts, and written down any questions you had from the assignment.

Communication

Use email!! Use office hours! Talk to me!!

Check the course Canvas site regularly

If I become ill, I will inform you the night before that I will be absent. Please email me before class if you will not be in class. Please set your spam controls to accept my email address.

Recording of Class Lectures & Sharing/Distribution of Course Content

Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor’s permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. This permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.

- If you wish to record lectures for your private, study purposes, please discuss this with the instructor. Written permission to record lectures will need to be granted for the whole semester or on a class-by-class basis.

- In classes where, active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests should be obtained as well.

Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor-generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent. This policy extends to both contents presented in the classroom and posted on the Canvas site.

- Recording Zoom Classes: This course or portions of this course (i.e., lectures, discussions, student presentations) will be recorded for instructional or educational purposes. The recordings will only be shared with students enrolled in the class through Canvas. The recordings will be deleted at the end of the semester. If, however, you would prefer to remain anonymous during these recordings, then please speak with the instructor about possible accommodations (e.g., temporarily turning off identifying information from the Zoom session, including student name and picture, prior to recording).

- Students are not allowed to record without instructor permission

➢ Students are prohibited from recording class activities (including class lectures, office hours, advising sessions, etc.), distributing class recordings, or posting class recordings. Materials created by the instructor for the course (syllabi, lectures and lecture notes, presentations, etc.) are copyrighted by the instructor. This university policy (S12-7) is in place to protect the privacy of students in the course, as well as to maintain academic integrity through reducing the instances of cheating. Students who record, distribute, or post these materials will be referred to the Student Conduct and Ethical Development office. Unauthorized recording may violate university and state law. It is the responsibility of students that require special accommodations or assistive technology due to a disability to notify the instructor.

University Policies

Per University Policy S16-9, university-wide policy information relevant to all courses, such as academic integrity, accommodations, etc. will be available on Office of Graduate and Undergraduate Programs’ Syllabus Information web page at http://www.sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo/” Make sure to review these university policies and resources.
Academic integrity

Your commitment, as a student, to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University Academic Integrity Policy S07-2 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S07-2.pdf requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/.

Student misconduct regarding academic dishonesty (a.k.a. “cheating”) will result in failure of the class (University Academic Integrity Policy S07-2 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S07-2.pdf; Academic Sanction 4.14)
