

2005 CAMPUS READING PROGRAM

Get the book ...

Read it this summer ...

Get connected this fall!

Nickel and Dimed is a captivating story of one woman's venture into low-wage America. There will be many ways to get engaged with this book and connect with others on campus, starting this fall.

For more information and dates of discussion groups and other activities, including an online discussion, visit

<http://www.sjsu.edu/ugs/reading/>

San José State UNIVERSITY

The Campus Reading Program is open to all members of the SJSU community.

The book is for sale at the Spartan Bookstore for the discounted price of $9.99.