More about your Life Insurance coverage

If you are working for your employer on the effective date - the waiting period is the first of the month following 3 continuous days.

If you start working for your employer after the effective date - the waiting period is the first of the month following 90 continuous days.

An Employee who is employed on the effective date of the policy will receive credit towards satisfying the waiting period for time employed with the employer provided he or she was employed on the day prior to the effective date of the policy.

Basic Annual Earnings means an Employee's annual wage or salary as reported by the Employer, for work performed for the Employer, as of the date the covered loss occurs. It does not include amounts received as bonuses, commissions, overtime pay or other extra compensation.

If the Employee dies while on a covered layoff, sabbatical, or leave of absence, We will determine the Employee's Earnings based on the terms above for the Employee's compensation in effect on the Employee's last full day of Active Work.
