S15-7, Amendment E, Retention, Tenure and Promotion for Regular Faculty Employees: Procedures

[To Remove an Invalid Clause Inadvertently Left by an Earlier Amendment.]

Legislative History: Amends: S15-7

Effective: AY 2016-2017

At its meeting of August 29, 2016, the Executive Committee while acting on behalf of the Senate when the Senate is not in session, approved the following policy recommendation presented by Senator Peter for the Professional Standards Committee. This amendment removes an invalid clause inadvertently left by an earlier amendment.

Approved and signed by President
Mary A. Papazian on September 6, 2016.

University Policy
Amendment E to S15-7—
Retention, Tenure and Promotion for Regular Faculty
Employees: Procedures

- Resolved: That the following amendment be incorporated into S15-7, and edited into the public copies of S15-7; be it further
- Resolved: That this amendment becomes effective immediately; be it further
- Resolved: That Professional Standards will introduce a motion at the first meeting of the full Senate in AY 2016-17 to rescind this amendment, effective at the conclusion of AY2016-17, to enable the full Senate to debate the merits of this resolution.

3.2 Department Committees.

~~3.2.6 Participants in the Faculty Early Retirement Program may not serve on retention, tenure, or promotion committees.~~

.....

[with remaining items in 3.2 renumbered accordingly]

Rationale: An earlier amendment in response to a revised interpretation of the contract made FERP faculty eligible to serve on RTP committees, under certain circumstances. This amendment deletes a phrase that was repeated elsewhere in the old policy and which should have been removed at the time of the earlier amendment. This is, therefore, an editorial change.
