The Program Planning Committee had an extremely productive year. We completed 10 Letters to the Provost for the following programs: Kinesiology, Chemistry, Geology, Computer Engineering, English, Political Science, Biomedical Engineering, General Engineering, Civil Engineering, and Industrial Engineering. The Committee granted extensions to Environmental Studies, Sociology and Interdisciplinary Social Sciences, Biological Sciences, Humanities, and Art & Art History. The Committee vote me as Chair again next year, so we will finish the College of Engineering programs and start on the programs due in 2020/2021.

Sincerely,
Mary Lynn Wilson

Program Planning Committee Minutes
Friday, September 6, 2019
Noon-2:00, CLK 412

Present: Mary Wilson (chair, Social Science - History), Deepika Goyal (Health and Human Sciences), David Yan (Education), Chao Vang (Institutional Research), Chris Tseng (EXO, Assessment), Debra Caires (Science), Colton Saylor (Humanities & Arts), Chunhui Peng (Humanities & Arts), Monica Gavino (Business), Joel Busch (Business), Thalia Anagnos (Undergraduate Education), Pei-Tzu Tsai (Education)

Guest: Sarah Schraeder (Recording)
I. Call to Order & Introductions. Mary Wilson called the meeting to order at 12:06 p.m. Shared introductions. Thalia Anagnos shared that Marc D’Alarcao should attend this meeting.

II. Communication Studies Extension. The committee members reviewed the request for an extension to the Communication Studies Program Plan submission. Thalia Anagnos shared that because people are on sabbatical this semester and they have a temporary chair and it is a reasonable request considering the situation in their department. Busch concurs with this because not having a permanent chair would make putting together a program plan very difficult. Caires asked if there were a lot of retirements in the department. Anagnos shared that the chair became a director, it is a big department. The committee unanimously to approve the commendation and the extension request passes. The committee members review the program plan, which can range from 25-400 pages depending on attachments. The subcommittees will look at sections of the proposals.

III. Assign Teams for Fall Semester Programs. Two programs are coming up for review so far this semester: English and Computer Engineering. In previous years, subcommittees were formed to draft a letter to the provost. If you are in the same college as the program, you should volunteer for another college to review.

Thalia reviewed that every program has to complete a program plan as guided by SJSU and systemwide policies. SJSU just moved from a 5-year to a 7 year cycle. The program writes a self-study - what have they been doing, what do they plan on doing, etc. External reviewer writes a report and by the time this committee receives the plan it has been thoroughly reviewed. This committee will summarize the findings and recommendations in a letter that is submitted to the Provost. Then there is an Action Plan meeting with the Provost, the Dean, and the department. They sign a contract for action and then there is some follow up. This committee summarizes the materials for that action plan meeting. Sometimes there are energized conversations about certain topics. There is a sense of care that needs to be taken but we need to bring it to the attention of the Provost. The final wording will come from the whole committee and that is not something that the subcommittees have to do at once. About 5 program plans are to be expected to be reviewed this term. Committee only meets once a month for two hours.

Assigned Program Plan Subcommittees
- English - Debra, Chunhui, Pei-Zu, Deepika, David
- Computer Engineering - Joel, Mary, Monica, Colton

IV. Senate Committees’ Referrals
A. C & R Policy: S08-3, Policy Recommendation, Incorporating Accessibility into the Curriculum Review Process. The University has a responsibility to make documents accessible for students. It may be the case that there needs to be more funding for this effort, but there is currently not a lot of compliance across campus. It does not help students and makes the University vulnerable. Several CSUs have had lawsuits filed against them. We have talked a lot about providing more support, but the question is how do people know and what can we do to make this more systematic so that departments make active decisions to come in compliance. At least if this was part of the program plan self study, there would be some accountability and if a department is not making materials accessible then becoming compliant would be part of the action plan. Brandon White wanted feedback from PPC to see if it is an appropriate part of the review process. Monica Gavino shared that this is compliance focused and awareness. The key thing we need to do is explain the how and why and wonders if this is not really the fix. Thalia Anagnos says that this is one of many different discussion items. There could be some language in the guidelines about the why and how to comply. David’s department is very much using the accessible syllabus template, but what is the scope of accessibility - everything. Everything that is public facing has to be compliant. Should there be a prioritization of accessibility? We would need to figure out in the guidelines to see what we want to see from the department. The department would self-assess (powerpoints, videos, images, etc.). We could get help from ATI committee. Mary will ask Brandon if they should be writing assessment guidelines. See http://www.sjsu.edu/accessibility/ for information about accessibility.

B. O & G Policy: Amendment A to University Policy F15-13 Updating the Board of General Studies Membership, Charge, and Responsibilities. The idea will be to revise BOGS to the General Education Assessment Committee (GEAC). The committee reviewed the proposed role of program planning in the revised policy for GEAC. The current committee spends most of its time reviewing new or modified General Education courses. The assessment data shared in the program plans is briefly shared. Revised focus of committee will be on assessment. The current program is assessed at the course level, but instead the intent will be to move toward GE program goal assessment. The committee discussed the issues with course assessment, its need, and issues with the GE guidelines. M. Wilson will report back that the information the policy is vague and if there is a committee to assess GE goals it should also look at the core competencies.

V. Training. M. Wilson reviewed necessary information for all new Program Planning Committee members, including the GoogleDrive organization, program planning templates, and procedures.

VI. Adjournment. The meeting adjourned at 1:48 p.m.

II. Review of the Minutes. The committee reviewed the minutes of November 1, 2019 and K. Connell moved, D. Caires seconded, and the committee voted unanimously to approve the minutes.

III. Review English Letter to the Provost. Thalia Anagnos and Chris Tseng shared how there has been some miscommunication and confusion about how the Board of General Studies (BOGS) should be sharing feedback about each program plan this committee reviews. The information is supposed to be shared between BOGS and Program Plan through the Assessment Director. BOGS chair discussed that they thought that feedback only needed to be shared when BOGS felt there were issues. The issue is that the Program Planning committee has already reviewed and sent an action plan letter for Anthropology and Kinesiology. Once BOGS sends feedback, an addendum will be sent from the Program Planning Committee.

The committee reviewed and discussed the draft letter.

A. Certificate in Professional Technical Writing is a basic certificate. They have people that want to take courses through the Open University (OU) but the University has a policy that you cannot offer basic certificates through OU.

B. The General Education review will be submitted by BOGS later through an addendum. A note has been added to the letter.
