

Snake observation

Schneider's skink observation

Comparing the Snake with the Schneider's skink

How are Schneider's skink different from snakes

How are Schneider's skink the same as snakes

Answer Key Example

There is no real answer key to this assignment. The students come up with their own answers based on the observation. Teachers only need to verify that the students' answers could have been observed from the animals, such as specific behaviors and colors on their bodies.

How are Schneider's skink different from snakes
The Lizard has four legs. The snake had no legs. The snake tried to climb the cage. The lizard didn't climb. The lizard and the snake was different colors. The snake moved with his whole body and the lizard used its legs.
How are Schneider's skink the same as snakes
They both have scales. They both have snake like faces. They both tried to hide in their cages. They both had patterns on their body.

