CANVAS and MySJSU

Course materials such as syllabus, handouts, powerpoint outlines, assignment instructions, etc. can be found on CANVAS in our class homepage. You are responsible for regularly checking CANVAS to learn of any updates. Your course exams will be taken online on scheduled dates, and your exam & assignment grades will be posted to CANVAS. Course Description

This course is designed to introduce students to the basic concepts, theories, and methods of sociology. My intention is to give students a broad overview of sociology so that they may then make an informed choice about further study in this discipline. Together we will critically examine the applicability of sociology to everyday life. We will assess the usefulness of a sociological perspective, and the depth of sociological method.

Course Goals and Specific Learning Objectives

Goals: The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the study of current social problems facing American society today. During our studies we will introduce and apply some core sociological theories and concepts to better contextualize and understand social problems, to further develop our sociological imaginations, and to discuss and devise social solutions. This will be approached in the context of using value systems, social groups, economic structures, and political institutions. The specific learning objectives are as follows

GE/SJSU Area D1 Specific Learning Objectives and Activities designed to meet these objectives

After completion of this course the student should be able to:

• Identify and analyze the social dimension of society as a context for human life, the processes of social change and social continuity, the role of human agency in those social processes, and the forces that engender social cohesion and fragmentation. [GE] Activities designed to Assist you in meeting this objective:
  Powerpoints, readings, class discussion boards, and exams. Writing assignments , discussion boards and/or video may be used
• Place contemporary developments in cultural, historical, environmental, and spatial contexts. [GE] Activities designed to Assist you in meeting this objective:
  Powerpoints, readings, class discussion boards, and exams. Class discussion boards / writing are specifically designed to meet this objective
• Identify the dynamics of ethnic, cultural, gender/sexual, age-based, class, regional, national, transnational, and global identities and the similarities, differences, linkages, and interactions between them. [GE] Activities designed to Assist you in meeting this objective:
  Powerpoints, readings, class discussion boards, and exams. Writing assignments & discussion boards , and/or video may be used
• Evaluate social science information, draw on different points of view, and formulate applications appropriate to contemporary social issues. [GE] Activities designed to Assist you in meeting this objective:
  Powerpoints, readings, class discussion boards, and exams. Discussion boards / Writing assignments are specifically designed to meet this objective

  Powerpoints, readings, class discussion boards, and exams. Writing assignments / discussion boards may be used.
Required Texts/Readings

*CAUTION: REVEL is NOT a class requirement, and as such the instructor does not have any class access, class invite or permission number to give to you. BEFORE purchasing REVEL and supplemental study material, be aware that students need to contact the publisher directly about any questions regarding REVEL. The instructor is not involved in REVEL, and this class is not linked with REVEL.

Students have many options relating to the required textbook. Students can rent or buy new and used textbooks, or use an E-book. As long as students use the proper edition the choice of format is up to students. Textbooks offered at our campus bookstore are for convenience, but there is no requirement that class textbooks be purchased from the campus bookstore. TEXTBOOK OPTIONS offered at the campus bookstore are NOT REQUIRED, they are simply recommendations. The textbook is also available from other sources, if you so choose. Be sure to purchase the proper edition of your textbook.

Reading should be done per our class syllabus. (Usually 1-2 chapters per week) Students will be better prepared to discuss the material, and better prepared for asking questions about material that needs more explanation. See reading schedule on Class Calendar page. Students are expected to use the proper edition of the assigned textbook. Older editions may not contain all the information that is listed on your exam study guides, and students that use the wrong textbook will be solely responsible for obtaining the missing information.

Classroom Protocol

Office Hours: In-person office hours are by appointment only during the Covid protocol. Feel free to contact me online or by email if you have any questions about the class or course material.

Technology Requirements: All students must have access to a computer and good internet service for this online class. If a student travels, access is required and missing access may result in the student being dropped from the class or failing the class.

Communication Policy: Good communication between the instructor and the students is imperative. Communication will be accomplished by way of the course syllabus, class announcements in Canvas, and emailed messages between the instructor and students.

- The course syllabus will be the primary method to convey class expectations. Students should thoroughly read the course syllabus, as it contains important class information, policies, procedures, and a class assignment calendar.
  Messages, warnings, penalties and cautionary policies may not be repeated beyond the syllabus.... and lack of repetition on the part of the instructor, does not void the policy.
  READ THE SYLLABUS

- Class announcements will be posted in Canvas, reminding students about deadline dates and upcoming assignments. Some deadline dates may not be announced in the classroom or on canvas announcements, so students are responsible for checking the syllabus class calendar regularly, and for knowing about deadline dates.
  CHECK THE SYLLABUS REGULARLY FOR DEADLINE DATES

- Emailed messages in Canvas are the quickest and most efficient way for the instructor and students to communicate effectively. Be sure that your Canvas account has the correct email address that you check regularly. The instructor is not responsible for missed messages due to incorrect email addresses. Students can email anytime of day, however, the instructor is not available 24 hours a day. The instructor will attempt to respond to email within a 24-48 hour time period.
Attendance & participation: Attendance and participation is still monitored in online formats and is a requirement for class grading. Participation in an online course refers to the completion of course work. Logging into the course is not considered participation. This class is not self-paced, and has strict deadline dates. Class assignments are due each and every week.

Drop policy: If a student wishes to drop this class, it is the student’s responsibility to complete the drop process with Admission and Records. Do not contact the instructor to drop the class. The instructor has the right to drop students that fail to participate for two consecutive weeks during a semester long course. The student may not receive further advance notice…this serves as notice of the drop policy.

* (Plus/Minus grading is used to differentiate grades that are close to the boundary between grade levels. If a student is a couple of points away from a higher grade level { e.g. B+/A- } the instructor will use an exam average to determine which direction the grade should go. Grades are not automatically rounded-up.

 (A+) and (A) have the same grade value on a 4.0 grade scale.

In the college classroom, grading is an institutional requirement. There is no perfect grading system, however, it is a necessity for this college and this classroom. The instructor’s goal in grading is to assess the student’s understanding of core subject matter as measured by a written exam. Grading is objective, based on exam scores and the quality of work produced in any graded class assignments. Grading is not subjective based upon how hard a student tries, or how much time is spent in studying. Unfortunately for some students, the reality is that grades in this class are based upon results and not necessarily a reflection of effort. There is very limited extra credit available in this class. NO extra credit beyond that offered on the class discussion boards.

Your Final Class Grade is composed of Two elements

This course has a (minimum) 1500 word writing requirement in the language and style appropriate for this discipline. This will be accomplished by way of an online class discussion board. This is a GE class requirement, and all students must comply. Students that miss 50% or more of the required discussion boards may have their final class grades lowered, by as much as half a grade (½ grade deduction).

There are NINE (9) required and graded discussion writing assignments (posted on CANVAS). Also, TWO (2) extra credit discussions are given. These are opinion-based responses relating to a topic question posted on the discussion board. The response must be meaningful. Grading is based upon a meaningful and appropriate answer.

Loss of internet service, loss of power, or damaged technology is NEVER a valid excuse for missing deadlines. Students are given multiple days to complete discussion board assignments, so waiting until the deadline date is a risk.

- NO LATE POSTINGS ACCEPTED ON THE DISCUSSION BOARD Once the board closes, it will not be re-opened for late postings
- NO POSTINGS ACCEPTED BY E-MAIL

Each discussion board assignment has 2 parts, and is a mandatory, graded class assignment. You must complete both parts for a maximum credit of 5 total points (DO NOT WAIT UNTIL LAST DAY TO POST ON THE DISCUSSION BOARD).

Part 1-  (3 pts. max) Students will write a 150-200 word answer to a discussion question(s).
Answers less than 150 words will receive reduced credit, if any credit at all. The answers should be in your own words, using your own thoughts and ideas. DO NOT RESEARCH for these answers, and do not give statistics, or information from other sources. Do not paraphrase or cite other sources. Write the word count of your response at the end of your response, to be considered for full credit. Full credit will not be given if no written word count.

Part 2- (2 pt. max) Students will write a 50-75 word response to one of your classmate’s postings.
Open a classmate’s posting, read and give some feedback to the writer. Write the word count of your response at the end of your response, to be considered for full credit. Full credit will not be given if no written word count.

To access the discussion board: go to Canvas and open your class. In the left-hand navigation bar click on the “Discussions” link, and find the required discussion. These are opinion-based responses relating to a topic question posted on the discussion board. The response must be meaningful. Grading is based upon a meaningful and appropriate answer.

Do not use the internet, or any other sources for these writing responses. This should not be research, statistics, quotations or other people’s words or ideas. This should be your own words, writing about your ideas, thoughts and opinions. If students post research, instead of original opinion, no credit will be given for the assignment, and no make-up assignment will be offered.

Please pay close attention to the noted deadlines for such activities because late responses will not be accepted for credit. This assignment is meant to be interactive, and as such, late postings do not contribute to the discussion. Early postings (prior to the deadline date) are encouraged, and may generate more interaction in the discussion board between classmates.

There are three (3) major midterm exams given in this class. Each exam is worth 100 points and will consist of 50 questions. All exams are multiple choice. Students are allowed to use the textbook and any notes during exams.

Make-up / late midterm exam: If a student misses taking a midterm exam, email the teacher and explain the absence. The make-up exam must be taken within 1 week of the original date. The make-up exam will have a 10% late penalty, unless the student has written documentation to excuse the late penalty. Students are only allowed one make-up midterm during the semester. No late make-up exam for Final Midterm #3.

NO RE-TAKE EXAMS ALLOWED ON ANY MIDTERM, IN ORDER TO GET A BETTER GRADE.

EXTRA CREDIT POLICY: (None available beyond what is listed)

The only extra credit in this class is in the class discussion boards. NO OTHER EXTRA CREDIT ASSIGNMENTS ARE AVAILABLE. Please do not ask.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT THIS CLASS

Do we have any required class orientation, either online or on-campus?
No. Registered students will get all the class information by e-mail prior to the start of class. I will send out information to you a few days before the first date of class.

Do we have any on-campus meetings, or ZOOM meetings, or is this class 100% online?
Class is 100% online. There are no on-campus meetings, and no zoom meetings.

How do we access the online class material?
ALL class material and course work will be accessed through CANVAS on your College Website. You will do your discussion board posting assignments directly on CANVAS.

Can I use a different edition of the textbook?
No. You should use the print copy or e-book for the textbook as described in your class syllabus. A print copy is not necessary, and an e-book will suffice, however, that is the choice for students to make.

What if I cannot afford to get my book right away?
Students need to have access to the textbook as soon as possible once class begins. Students may have to borrow the book or ask another classmate for a book sharing. Students will be at a disadvantage if they do not do the required readings.

Do we have to login at particular times, or for specific amounts of time?
No. You have access to study material, 24 hrs. a day, and there are no assigned times that you must be online for readings or study aids. Discussion Boards do have assigned deadline dates and times.

Where do I find the Discussion Boards and Online Exams?
These are all located in CANVAS.

What should I do if I cannot access the Discussion Board?
Contact tech-support before contacting the instructor, to avoid missing the deadline. Missed deadlines will result in a late penalty or zero grade. Also, be sure to contact the instructor and let the instructor know about the problem.
Can I make-up missed Discussion Boards, and turn-in late class work?

No. No late work is accepted for Discussion Boards. Multiple days are given to complete the discussion boards, so late work is NEVER accepted. Students are expected to start the class on the first day of class, and stay active in the course. You must keep current with all assignments & exams. If you travel, you are still responsible for your classwork, your deadlines, and you should make sure that you have internet access.

If I miss an exam deadline, can I do a make-up exam?
If a student misses the original exam deadline, contact the instructor immediately. If a make-up exam is arranged, a late penalty will apply, unless official written documentation is provided. ONLY one make-up exam per student allowed during the semester.

Is there a study guide I can use to prepare for exams?
Yes. Please see the “files” folder in CANVAS. The exam study guide will be posted there.

If I do poorly on the Major Exams, can I still pass this class?
Probably not. Major exams usually constitute a total of 75-85% of your overall grade. There is not much other work to compensate for the low exam grades. The instructor offers very limited extra credit in this class. If a student is not performing well on exams, they should consider dropping the class, and taking the class at another time when they are better prepared.

Is there any extra credit or other work I can do to improve my grade?
Very limited. Students are graded based on the Discussion Boards and the Major Exams. A few extra credit points may be available as described in your class syllabus. Please do not ask for any additional extra credit.

How do I keep track of my grades, and my progress in this class?
The instructor keeps a record of your grades on CANVAS. Contact the instructor for questions about grading.

University Policies:

General Expectations, Rights and Responsibilities of the Student

As members of the academic community, students accept both the rights and responsibilities incumbent upon all members of the institution. Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with SJSU’s policies and practices pertaining to the procedures to follow if and when questions or concerns about a class arises. See University Policy S90-5 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S90-5.pdf. More detailed information on a variety of related topics is available in the SJSU catalog, at http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/catalog/rec-12234.12506.html. In general, it is recommended that students begin by seeking clarification or discussing concerns with their instructor. If such conversation is not possible, or if it does not serve to address the issue, it is recommended that the student contact the Department Chair as a next step.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s Catalog Policies at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic year calendars document on the Academic Calendars webpage at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/services/academic_calendars/. The Late Drop Policy is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes. Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/.

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf, requires students to obtain instructor’s permission to record the course and course material.

• “Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor’s permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material”
• “Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”

The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/.

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include your assignment or any other material you have submitted, or plan to submit to another class, please note that SJSU’s Academic Integrity Policy SO7-2 requires approval of instructors.
