CONTRACT FOR

SOCI 180- Individual Studies – CR/NC grading. 1-4 units. Indicate # units desired _____

For serious students regardless of major who wish to pursue a specific sociologically relevant project or area of study beyond or outside existing departmental offerings. Students will normally have done previous work with the sponsoring instructor. Each unit of 180 credit represents 40 hours of work by the student. The course must result in some definable and appropriate product that can be evaluated and graded by the instructor. In no case will enrollment be allowed to students who only seek units of credit and do not have a specific project or area of study in mind, nor to students who merely intend to contribute labor to a project being carried out by a faculty member, nor to students who seek to bypass an existing course. Only 4 units total may be counted towards student graduation.

SOCI 199H- Honors Thesis – CR/NC grading. 3 units.

For students wishing to complete the Sociology Honors Program. A G.P.A. of 3.2 overall and 3.5 in all Sociology courses is required.

Briefly describe the nature of the project discussed with and approved by your professor/honors thesis chair:
